

12-sept-2020_is My Word worth your blood

(Jesus speaking:) If My Word isn't at least worth your very blood, costing you down to the bone, as Hebrews 4:12 says; if it isn't even worth giving up your physical flesh for, flesh that will perish and be transformed, you are as light as chaff. Poof I blow and you flutter away. You aren't worth your salt. You are less than nothing. The only thing that makes you valuable is "Christ in you the hope of glory".

If I, Jesus Christ am not being glorified in your physical tabernacle—how was I glorified? In death, right?—so if because of My Words you are not even so much as "dying daily" then what claim do you have to eternal rewards?

Even salvation won't look so pretty. You'll sit around ashamed, wondering why you showed up. If My Word meant nothing to you and you were ashamed to be even embracing it, woe be to you. Trouble shakes the land and only those with the lifesaver of My Word will stand and be able to rescue others.
