More from the "Seeds of David": Heavenly Escorting Service

You do wish to hear from Heaven, for you know that the mess down here, the maze, won't show you the way. And this is good. Keep looking up. Keep breathing in the Elixirs. Keep receiving the visions that teach and show you things past finding out. For you'd never discover these if you used the means of mankind to get the wisdom, for they are the hidden things of God. But the visions from the Lord of Heaven teach these things to you in an instant.
