More from the "Seeds of David": Delight of the dreams of your heart

I help to stimulate ideas of things your heart might wish for, and then to help bring a few things to pass. If I know something is coming up down the line, I might work to give you a passion for it or an interest in it, so that when it's time that you do or experience something, it brings you joy in some way. This joy is then translated into praise which helps to ward off the enemy.

So really, moving your heart and mind to enjoy things, is a battle tactic that I use. I fight with pleasure, really, but only in those things that will bring you closer to the goals that Jesus has laid out for you. It's all for the cause of the living Saviour being fulfilled.

So if you get a hankering for something, turn it into a prayer for the Lord's will to be done, in His time and in His way. And trust then that if it will help to bring about His will more quickly, that at the precise moment a desire will be fulfilled. —For the desire was created to make you do something more easily in the future, as we made you crave to have it and you committed it to the Lord to make it happen in His time, and not prematurely. But if you try to just take and grab whatever you want, as soon as you think of it, then this doesn't work out. You don't get the fun thrill that you will when it's clearly a God-granted gift, like a flower opening at just the right time.
