

18-Feb-2021_ream after ream of messages

More from the “Seeds of David”: Anton the Stout-hearted

If something is jostling your faith, ask me to speak on it. Call me by name, or just ask in general. When the topic is about your faith, then I'll step up to the plate and declare the messages that your Lord has asked me to pass on. I have the weaponry of the Word of God to give you.

You could sit here and get it, ream after ream, of messages that I have in store, to keep you on track in your belief system. Or you could just ask as you go along and battles hit you—either your own, or from other sources. But either way, I have more to pass on than you'll probably ever find the time to assimilate.

So don't hesitate to ask when something is starting to hit at your faith or your conviction to live it out in whatever way you are meant to, then I can get started on some of the meatier messages that I have here to pass on to you from your Lord and King. I've got all kinds of swords I can pull out, and am only too eager to do so.
