(see also file: 3-Oct-2020_from a Warrior Knight)

MAT.12:40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

JOH.11:23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

JOH.11:25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

MAT.27:50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

MAT.27:51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

MAT.27:52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

MAT.27:53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

MAT.27:54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

(Jesus speaking: ) I went down to the valley of the shadow of death. A shadow of things that would yet be.--The real final death in the land of forgetfulness. I went down to say the Daystar was to arise. The light had come and would rise to bring life to all who believed.

And just like on Earth, some believed and others mocked, so was it then, while in the midst of My brethren bellow. I pleaded; I explained the scriptures to them. I said to them also that it was fulfilled in their ears. (Luke 4:21) Those who had waited for the day of My arrival, who still believed that verse saying "whither shall I go from thy presence" rejoiced to see Me. (Psalm 139:7-10) They would not leave My side. These, My brethren, these lost of the tribes of Israel.

REV.14:3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.
REV.14:4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.
REV.14:5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

I went down to the pit that I might unloose them and set them free.

They were loosed and delivered, as fast as it was done in Egypt. It was a day of deliverance. Just as the darkness fell on Egypt shortly before they were set free, and just as the first born was slain shortly before they left, so was it again in the time of their deliverance.

The darkness came as I was crucified, and I, the first born of God was slain. And then, oh, I cry to remember what happened next. I was the Moses that led them out and up to freedom.

But just as the children of Israel had to go through some tough times of testing, so did these released children of Abraham, endure testing as they have gone through the pain--along with Me of course--of trying to bring their brethren, those still on Earth, to a full and believing knowledge of God.

They see how disbelief is a like a plague of the heart and mind, and needs to be purged. And time and testing is what cures it, most of the time. It's a time of purging and testing for all—those who live, and those who were revived and risen with Me. They fight with Me as their commander, to save the lost, the lost of their brethren.

And like those in the parable of the workers harvesting, some had to work longer than others, so is it. These ones are fighting long and hard to win as many as possible, before faith is snatched away.

I called these warrior tribes, which is what the children of Israel were created for—to be warriors for Me. I called them up and out of the pit, I delivered them. And those who believed, serve Me night and day.

Why was it “a night to be remembered” when they first left Egypt? A great day I told them to always remember, and to even have a week of eating special bread to remind themselves of it? It was to remind them of the great deliverance that was coming; the deliverance I was going to bring when I rose. (Exo.12:14,17,42)

So many scriptures speak of this, the real deliverance. The one from Egypt was just a symbol of the real one that was coming as I marched in through the water of the pit of the grave, and parted a way for them to come forth. And now they were to help Me fight, in the realm of the spirit, against the Egyptians who would always, to their dying breath, try to stop God’s people from gaining the freedom of salvation.

You think these are nice little bedtime stories, or even dramatic stories of salvation from this or that?

But though it does paint a picture, there’s far more to it than that.

Did you ever think that the stories of tales of what was going on in the seen and touchable world was to give you all an idea of what was actually happening in the realm beyond, in the much vaster world of the spirit?

So what just happened to you today? Did you have a run in with someone? Watch out. There’s more going on than you see. It’s just a tip of the iceberg. And speaking of ice, it’s going to melt. It’s been held up, but it’s going to melt and fall like huge melting icebergs off mountains of frozen matter in the deep. And the water is going to rise, and with this flood will come troubles by the ton. Now here I speak in parables—using “ice” as an object to teach you something. But the wise will seek out the scriptures, seek out the words of the prophets, and will seek the Lord—their living God—to speak to them.

Did you know that all the words I spoke on Earth were not just to be “heard of men” but to be heard by angels, giving them their cues; heard by those in the spiritual realm; heard by those who would yet live in the future, and were to be heard by those in the grave, in the pit.

My Word was going out to all generations—to all who had lived, were living, and who would yet live. So don’t worry if there are some things that it seems are hard to understand or that don’t make perfect sense. If it did, then you’d be God, wouldn’t you? But you are to listen and to ask for deep understanding, so you can catch what is meant for you.

(Ask—for anointing and understanding; Seek—the scriptures; Knock—to know more.)

You are to turn on your channels and get the message that the Lord your God is trying to alert you with.

In times of war, this was often used. Coded words, coded sentences, and hidden meanings, coded messages. So is it when I go to war with My Words. My close, well-informed troupes know the meanings of what I say, because they have been in the long training and planning sessions with Me.

So take those training and battle planning sessions, and be informed. Maybe you won’t catch everything that is being said, as it might not be for you. But if it was intended for you, and it was your lack of attentive learning that made you miss that call or not rightly interpret that order or warning, then it’s your loss, and Mine as well.

So take time to get well acquainted with My Word, both the living for the now, as well as all My instructions I’ve already given. Yes, you have a big job to do, to read, to study, to pray and pray again to make sure that you are getting it right, and to see if I have any updates that you are now eligible to get, since you have learned what you needed to in order to get the next bit of information, and will do the right thing with it.

See, if a child only reads a part of an instruction for using a dangerous piece of equipment, there’s going to be more problems, right? First, they need time to grow up and gain wisdom and skill. And they need to be able to read also. Then they need time to study the manual. Then they need time to put it into practice, and experiment a bit before they have to do the hard work of using it for what it’s meant for.

So it is with many things that I’ve given to you My team, My close companions. Some weren’t mature enough to do the right thing with it. But later on, when they picked up the instructions then it started to make sense and they noticed not only what this piece of equipment was for, but they took time to read the warning label also, and committed to using it in the right and safe way. Now they are trying it out, and seeing how it works, and how it doesn’t. But when I give the call and say, “Now, do the big hard job—one that can’t be done right nor done in time without that piece of equipment that I gave you” then they get to work. They are ready. They are not children using it as a play thing or something to keep them busy. But to do My work, and to do it in My way.

Just like an army is meant to do things in the way and at the time they are called on do it, so are you to give your life in utter obedience to Me, for only then will the victories be won.

So, like I said, what is happening and seen on Earth is a glimpse, a sample of what is going on in the much vaster domains of the spiritual world, so is it now with you. You are preparing to fight the fiends of darkness, but you are not alone. Not at all. You are just a sample of the many who are actually fighting, most of whom you and others will never see. That is one sacrifice you have given up to live in the temporal space. For the most part you have to miss the video of what is really going on. But you are key players in this battle, and very, very needed. You call the shots in many cases, by your prayers. I let you have a very big role in this battle. And one day you’ll get to see the parts of the film that you missed, while you played your role in the battle for those on your planet.

But know that there is so much more that goes on than you’ll ever be aware of.

So get ready, get set, and go. Go for it, with all the armament of Heaven.

And be thankful for these troops, the troops that I have delivered from the underworld, who now fight day and night to rescue as many as they can.
