

2-Oct-2021_My beloved walk in faith

(Jesus speaking:) The beloved of the Lord. How dear these ones are to Me. How close I hold them to My heart. I never want them to be far, for then the pain starts in My heart. I want them to always know how important they are, how vital they are to Me and to My plans, and to the overall running of My Kingdom.

Honey, you've just got to make it around the next bend. So much will be clarified then. I want you to hold on in faith. That is the goal of the clouded way, to hone your muscles of faith, otherwise you'd just go on with sight, meanwhile your faith muscles would be lacking the skill training needed.

Be glad for the clouded pathways, the places where you can't see your way clearly, for you are being readied for making it through the part that comes next. Step by step, I do it all just right.
