(Jesus speaking:) You can't always have smooth sailing, especially in these rather frightful days that are happening in the world day. But you can always come to Me to be soothed back into full and good health.

Just be glad you do have the means to keep gaining healing, Me. So many people don't know of that resource, healing through My love and My Word.

So what if you have to go in and get battered again—that means you are not knocked out of the ring. Come on and get on your fighting mitts, with the renewed vigour.

Oh, you lost sight of the goal. Of course you aren't going to be all that motivated to fight on if you don't know where you are heading.

... And remember, you are here because I placed you right here. And I am going to go at it with you until we are done. I promise that not a moment too long will you be there. I'll time it all just right.

Do the job and love Me while you are at it.
