

22-Jul-2020_learning to be silent

31-JULY-2020

(Spirit helper speaking:) We here only speak when we are spoken through, or we'd cause more trouble than it's worth. Learn to do as we, and listen, observe. Take in and learn—both in the physical and in the realm that is with you, albeit invisibly.

You've started to get the hints from some time back.

"The silent ones" are those who wait for their redeemer, and are not making a continual clattering. There is enough talking going on, and not enough listening, looking, and learning.

Sometimes you think if you type it then it's as good as being quiet, but written words play aloud just the same in the mind of those who read it.

Be silent in surrender.