

24-AUG-2020_ I'm coming back as soon as I can

(Jesus speaking: ) Darling lover, I am with you, though you see Me not. It won't be so long. If you'll just be patient. Please believe Me that I am coming back as soon as I can. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. There will be many unattended to plows. The field and areas that My messengers are being blocked from are getting more wide spread. There is too much that now blocks that personal touch in so many places.

I may not come tomorrow or the next day, for there are many things yet to get into place. But swift will be the lights when they do go out. So prepare now, and do whatever you can to let the people know that I do have a plan and I do want to save as many as I can.

Can you go witnessing from where you are? Remember My angels are sent out to preach the gospel. Pray for receptive hearts.

Darling, soak in My Word. If there is no hunger or desire [from others] to come into the hot tub of My Word, don't let that take you out. Sit alone, under the starlight and still soak in My Word. It will mean even more to me—and to you too—if you choose to sit and be cleansed and strengthened and renewed, though alone, or getting some flack.
