More from the "Seeds of David": Delight

Sweet darling, we have a little bit of Heaven prepared to share with you.

Where there is loneliness, in will rush the "fill-you-up" team.

Where there is doubt, and injury and all those hurtful things, in will rush the heavenly combat teams to ward off the foolish tricks of the fool. We are here for you, and you don't need to feel alone.

Faith will sustain you and embrace you, but only as you call on the keys. It's a battle, these waves of self pity and self nursing. Claim the keys and rise above. You don't just want to get patched up, but fly high into Heavenly arms.
