(Jesus speaking:) Let it go. Let pride be abandoned like a sinking ship, for sink it will, along with Satan the perpetrator of it, the promotor of pride. What is pride? Wanting things your own way. I'm not taking about the great ideas you get and wanting to put them in to action. That can be fun fulfillment, and I can be in that and use that inspiration and a desire to do something, for at many times it was and is Me working in you with that passion to do this or that for the Glory of God.

But when you get that rebelling feeling, that "why do I have always have to check with God about things; aren't I wise enough by now? Can't I just do whatever I think, whenever I think it?" But that's why you fall into a trap, and your works sink.

Be like a child in the backpack riding on the back of their Father. They go where the Father goes. He can take big strides and big steps and even reach the top of the mountain. But if the little wee one had squirmed and wished to get out, so he could walk a few steps on his own, he might fall right off the edge of the cliff, and certainly wouldn't make it to the top.

So sit tight and let Me take you up to where the view is really good. You'll have to be real close, but you'll get to hear My comments about all you see as you go along. And you won't be as tired when you get to the top. You'll have let Me carry you. And you'll be much wiser, as you'll have heard Me speaking to you all along the way.

This is like rising above, isn't it? You are up on my back, not down on the ground. Hearing My voice and seeing what I point out. You might feel jostled around a bit as I take big steps and climbs. But you won't fall out. You are strapped in.

I love you My dear ones. We're going up the mountain, and the view is going to be great.
