

27-MAR-2021_tips for today's tests

I'm liking this closer walk. You desire My Words that set the tone and direct your day's pattern, even your battles. You know you are engaging in battle when you listen to the captain of the army. So, thanks for coming in closer and having more of your life available for use by the team.

Here's few things for today's tests:

*Praise always

*Sing to pull you through

*Smile at whoever you can—this brings the Devil's domain in their mind to a crushing halt, at least for a time.

*Rest on My bosom in spirit, for herein is rest.
