(Jesus speaking:) The seeds that I give you aren't like a person who makes themselves a meal and then sits down to eat and enjoy it. It's not time to take a break and then walk off doing whatever, with the strength of the nice seed snack.

No, you are a pipe, a little channel, a very little and short empty cylinder pipe, that the seeds are to flow through. I put in My seed sower and foosh, through you goes the seeds. You don't even have to worry if you are absorbing them all, just yet. Right now I just need a channel, a vessel to pour My seeds through.

The seed flow is meant to be more like a river, flowing, not a snack to sit down and enjoy. You need to set aside time each day for this meeting with the Master for the sowing of His seeds. You don't have to feel beautiful, comely, or attractive. You don't have to even feel particular in the mood for spiritual sex. But you do need to lie down and get fucked good, once or twice a day (including the night of course).

I will pump you and pump you to My heart's delight. I'm not asking you to bear and bring to fruition every seed I pour through your heart and out your mouth and through your fingers. A cook in a restaurant can't possibly eat every bite that he cooks. But he does need to get it out of the kitchen, and get cooking more, as there will always be more hungry folks to feed.

So don't worry if you don't even remember everything you type up and pass on. It's not important right now. Your job is to channel the seeds from Heaven, and let Me use them as I know is best.
