(Spirit helper speaking:) Abolish the old—time for purging. Let the old go. Old garments; old ideas, hopes and dreams—or things you never have used or won't. It's not a time to hold on to things that are just sentimental. For your only heart and wish needs to be all out for the war at hand. Pluck up and get on with the journey. A soldier readying for what is to come, or what they could be doing if they didn't have so much attached that they hold God responsible for keeping safe and watching over for them.

(Jesus speaking:) Did I not say it was the time to move on and not be "sentimental". This includes doing things. Put down the apron [cooking], and pick up the hot pan of hot cakes for those who need the food of the spirit.

4-Jan-2021

(Dream:) I woke with a dream on Monday morning, 4th of January, 2021. There was a team I was with. But then I was busy doing this and that in some house. Seemed I was doing good things, like witnessing or trying to. I was there all night. In the morning a black guy came looking for me. I was missed. I had missed the bus the rest of the team had left on. I didn't even know they had gone. He had come back for me to bring me again to join them. He carried me on his back to the bus. I was going to be carried and united with the "bus" and team I'd missed.

(Note:) Reminded me of the 10 years the Lord said I missed out on hearing the special messages from the angels.

5-JAN-2021

(Angel speaking:) Grieve not the spirit of the Lord. Fulfil your election and high calling. Be wise and hold to your crown. Are you pulling down rich and new treasures, or only coasting on delights from yesteryear? What does God want to show and move through you now? Seek Him. He's not going to beat down your door, or always be the first one to knock. Get active, get moving, even to the hurt of your pet projects and ideal "get done's".

...all kinds of messages to cascade right to you. Pour it out; let it flow, move with the Spirit of God.

(Like what was said in the prophecy file: 6-Jan-2021_make fast headway, from my chastising angel:)

"Up now and fight. ... Let's go. That's what is meant by full throttle. ...If you haven't done your spiritual quota, then why are you doing something else? I'll keep making things hurt when you try to do them, if they are not what is meant for you. ...Back to the King's business. Like I said, time is ticking. There are other projects in the works, but first things first need to be done, which lay the ground work for the rest. Take the steps and move with the spirit of the Lord."

(Note: and this message above, was commented on by another angel who rewarded me with a spirit trip, in file: 6-Jan-2021_a visit to angeland)

"You wooed with your readiness and eagerness to hear messages from above—well, maybe it took a pep talk from a certain someone—but you are listening and that is good."
