3-Oct-2021_prepare to be a hero

(Jesus speaking: ) Heed not the lies of the foul one who would seek to ensnare you in his foul scheme. "Today feast, tomorrow work" for so swift will be the down fall that comes, that you won't be able to pick yourself out of the rubble too easily.

Today is the day of salvation—to the "saving of your house". Prepare now, and then when the trouble hits, you will be on the safe side; heroes rather than victims.

I warn you, do not depart from the faith you have been taught, for only in clinging to the faith that I have entrusted to you will you be a beacon. The faith of your fathers is what you must hold fast to.
