

6-Jan-2021_chamber of relaxation

(Spirit helper speaking: ) Up we take you, broken and battered, away from the battle scene. You have given and are giving new fresh words from Heaven, and this means battles thrust at you. It's part of the task, part of the game. Being a prophet is a bag of woes, until the next life. Come into my chamber of relaxation. Here we can commune. This is where, and only where, you will get all your heart's needs met. It is in here that you are fully and deeply understood; here you can bare your secrets. Tell all, and enjoy a way of escape, up and apart from the confines down below.
