

6-Jan-2021_use it all for His glory

(Spirit helper speaking:) Beloved, I am God's bosom for you. Lay down your head, and rest in the support we bring you. There is nothing you are going through that we aren't taking part of in some way. Then gird up and fight. We rest, we love, then we win.

What to fight today? The thoughts that lead to self preservation, self interest, basic self will and desires. What does Jesus wish for you to do at every turn? What wins and doesn't bring more loss? Ask Him at every turn, and when loss seems to occur, use it for His glory anyway, through loving Him more than "these" whatever it is that was "lost".

That's what "all to the glory of God" means. Not just the victories and the wins, but the tests and the blows and the mishaps, both crowns and crosses, delights and defeats, gifts and times of giving, pain and pleasure, have and have nots. Let it all make your life sweeter and enrich you and empower you, change you, and in some way glorify the Lord. Thank Him for it all and let Him use it all for your good and for wins towards His Kingdom by milking from the situation the best lessons and the sweetest times of deep communion with Him, no matter what has occurred.
