

7-Sept-2020_putting on the mind of God-Pt2

(Jesus speaking:) Putting on My mind is really easy. It means that you no longer have to spend long hours figuring things out. You don't have to think about who is right and who is more wrong. You simply listen, and look to Me, Jesus, to tell you what to think, who to speak with, what to say, and how long to be doing what you are meant to.

You just lie back in the car of your life and let the Spirit of God drive you, push you, tug you, embrace you. You don't have to come up with cool answers to speak, but ask the Lord your God what and when to speak. You don't have to pull the full load, and feel so alone.

Just listen when I speak—more than you give place to the thoughts and minds of others. I can speak to you in your heart or mind, or through prophecy given through another. Listen when I speak, and then try to do it, to the best of your ability, even if, or when there is opposition. For when you only listen, or listen only part of the time, then the voice fades; and the other voices telling you what you should or should not be thinking, get louder.

But if you let My voice drown out the other sounds, and you are fully given over to Me, that is when I get excited. For the more parts of You that I am allowed to enter, and to take over, and to live through, the happier we all will be.

Think about it for moment. What if each soul on the planet, right now said in unison, "We resist all attempts of satan the usurper, to control us and our world. We defy anything that goes against God and His Word. We love Jesus and give Him our full allegiance. And we will do anything, anything at all, from this moment on, that pleases Jesus, the Lord and King of our life."

Well, that is the goal I'm shooting for. Because once the serpent is driven out, then peace on Earth can come. I can drive him off the world, but out of the lives and hearts of minds of mankind, that takes willingness on their part to do it. And that takes time.

But if a few of My chosen few are willing to be fulltime conduits of My power made manifest on this planet, that will help to drive out the works of the devil faster, and win more over to My side.
