

8-Jan-2022_how I desire you

(Jesus speaking: ) Honey, I know you are hurting. But just a little more, another few steps, and on we go to victory land.

Do you think I would delay even for one second more, the victory, if I could bring it all to the victorious end, right now? But there is more that needs to yet be accomplished, but if you take each daily step that you must, soon, very soon, I will be holding you all—all My faithful ones—in My arms. I need to know that you will do anything for Me, no matter what tries to stop you or hinder your efforts.

Onward we walk, and faith is your buckler and protection in these dark and troublesome days. I need you to keep holding the Word of life high. Or what will you feed folks with, when you see those very words that I have given, coming to pass and needing to be shared if you have hid this light under a bushel?

Keep hold of the Word that I have poured out to My servants and to your brethren and to you. Keep the faith and be well armed. For it's not what comes out of a man that strengthens him—his works; but that which he yields to taking in that empowers him.

Be wise and do those things first—that is to say on your top list—those things that I put on My top “to do list” for you to accomplish.

I need you as a beacon of light in these dark and last days. Will you too flicker out and dry up? Or will you be as a well spring of living waters and pour out and replenish the land. It's not what others say you should do or should not do that matters most, but what your Lord says and demands you to pay heed to. Who is your Lord? The one, whoever it is, that you obey.

I see by your works what it is you are taking heed to; who you are following. Your works show Me who is boss in your life. You can say Lord Lord, all you want, but it's by your works that I see who you are following and taking heed to. The works of your hands show Me the truth about who you heed and listen to. Choose this day who you will serve. If I am your God and Lord, then I will see by your fruits and the deeds you do.

JOH.8:41 Ye do the deeds of your father.
