(Jesus speaking:) The enemy of love fights hard. Let me take you to the tabernacle of love, and strip you of your wishes and vain pleasure, and teach you, how to really be loving. It's not about getting, but giving. It's not about receiving pleasure, but meeting the needs of another.

See this tool. It's one powerful tool, it's called affection and the need for it. This is the tool you are to use now. Use it well. You don't have to say much, just use this. Give it to your mate and to those you are able to. A touch is all it takes to dispel so much that is wrong.

Is it about getting? No. Just give it. Make it part of what you do, all through the day. Use it and be a fighter. When you get here you'll see the victories you won through the art of fervent affection. Let love be multiplied through using this tool in your lives.

(Jesus speaking:) Give a touch of affection in a chaste and pure way. Affection is the solution to most of the world's emptiness, and the so called need for abundant sex. It was really the affection that came from hands of love that they are actually craving.

I crave, so very intensely, to have you in My own welcoming bosom. Be at peace and do as the scriptures show is the loving way: To touch, to hold, to rest in the bosom of another. This feeds, this brings healing.
