

9-July-2021_to a faithful warrior

(Jesus speaking:) My faithful warrior, My faithful knight, I thank you with all My soul, for going the distance for Me, regardless of the many wounds it has cost you. So did I for you. And remember the wounds were by those who were deceitfully condemning Me, saying I had done wrong. They wounded Me for My love. They sought to slay Me every time I stepped outside of their cold regulations and dared to do the “unthinkable and undone” to share God’s love and healing, when those ever so righteous ones thought it inappropriate. They were jealous to see that love won people over where their rules could not control. Love did what the law did not. Remember this, dear one, faithful one.

I have a feast of pure delight being prepared for you. As you take in sweet honey from the chalices of Heaven, the nectar will soothe your aches and bring your heart a fresh smile of relief. Take Me in, take in My fresh Words from Heaven, for the feast is for the faithful ones who long for their living Saviour. Let Me impart to you beauties from Heaven, the like you have not ever tasted before. I long to feed your soul such sweet nourishment. The battle will go on for quite some time yet, but with the new nectar of Heaven’s store, you will be enlightened and able to carry on.
