

Little seeds in July 2021

(Spirit helper speaking:) It's impossible to fail with the keys on your side. We'll bring you through to victory. And what is victory? Full faith in all God has spoken. These things need to be built up in you again, since the lies and weakening of your foundation of faith has occurred so strongly.

(Jesus speaking:) And no matter what, keep following hard after Me. Okay? Though none go with you, still you follow. What is to follow? To listen and then to do.

(Spirit helpers speaking:)

It's not about the failures that matters, but your willingness to do what your Lord wished.

*

Just know that fights for the Lord will be tough, but will make things easier for others to also win.

Light, light, that is what is needed. Light in all ways possible. Open, always open, open to the light and to the God of light. It takes fight to take in the light and to let it flow in unhindered.

(Jesus speaking:) Ye are the children of light, not of the darkness. But be wise as you let your light shine, for remember the darkness doesn't want to be reminded that it's dark. It wants to think it knows all. And when you have something it doesn't have, it gets it very jealous. Because light means up, and up means in charge and on top of everyone else.

4-JULY-2021

(Spirit helper speaking:) There are so, so many things we'd love to be telling you, but if you were to know them they'd disrupt things quite a bit. So it's best you just see things as they come and not hear about the bigger picture. But just know this that though all can't be said just yet, all will be revealed in time.

*

You don't have to know the whole story right now, for now is not the time and it would cause a disruption of thoughts to know more than is best to know at this point in time.

*

Some things are veiled for a very good reason, and all you can deal with is the piece of music that's in your hands, right there, right now. What song are you to play? It's not a light piece, not for you, not for any at this point. But it keeps up a regular rhythm, and it makes your steps keep going onward.

*

(Jesus speaking:) My beloved angel. How I crave and cry to have you in My arms, right near here to My heart. There is so much I want to tell you, it's hard to wait. So much yet that you just don't know. How I will cherish the time that we are at last one, fully, with each other.

(Jesus speaking:) It's your fear, dear one, that has kept you in a bubble of conformity. You have locked yourself in. It was when you stopped fearing ... that you stepped out to do something new and radical. If you weren't in fear ... things would have played out so much differently.

(Jesus speaking:) Sweet treasure, I do long for you, and in this little way I can touch you. Thank you for letting Me be a part of your life in this little humble way. I long to embrace you and cherish the secrets of your soul. Come with Me My fair one, for I long to have you by My side in the courts of Heaven. Here I hold you, here I teach you, here I do make passionate love to you. There you give, and can only take things as far as a human is willing to embrace or has been given the clearance for. But when you come to My courts, it's your time of being given unto. Let Me tenderly nourish you, sweet mate. We will frolic and be one again and again. It's time for the opening of the vaults of passionate love with and for Your God. Reignite the blaze of love. Empower Me with your touches. How to declare love? Words, always words, for that is how empowerment is passed on, both ways.

[On my written words of declaring intimacy and love with Jesus:]

It will burn through just about any substance. Those words will get right to the core of a person's being.

(Jesus speaking:) Brave one, waiting for so many things—for Me primarily, to reveal Myself to you. Darling, you think you have got a long way to see Me, to be held in My arms, but time will pass, and the light will shine, and oh the climax that will be felt, by Me, by you, and by us all.

(Jesus speaking:) Do stock up word treasures, for the famine for the Word is coming. To be "disenchanted" at the time when you need to be rather stocking up, is a foul move. Read, memorise, pack in what you must so you can shine—like placing a battery with in your soul.

(Jesus speaking:) Just go and be a light; you can't chase out the darkness, but go. I can turn you on. You are like a lightbulb. I do the turning on; you just sit there ready to be used. I flip the switch and do what you could never do. I love to have an empty one I can use.
