

Little Seeds in October_December 2021

(Jesus speaking: ) I want to help you learn relearn the art of stillness; where you can sit and be refreshed for long periods of time, without needing to be doing, active, on the go, on the move. Stillness in My presence. A lost art these days. Slow down and be renewed.

(Jesus speaking: ) A servant. Always a servant. Let love cover you and all that you do.

You are a servant, and it grates on you in ways you don't realise. Put servant jobs first, then joy will come in the afterlife. Serve in love, and go and do your Master's bidding. All burdens will be relieved off of you one day and you will feel so light.

[The enemy] is showing his head; it's death by exposure. Do this and that maneuver and a certain ill erupts it shows you what or who is fouling up the water. Then you can call it out and bring it down.

When you close off to the word, your shield, then you open yourself to the enemy's lies and traps.

[Note: When crying at night, talking in heart to the Lord about the huge attacks... and the day or so before said I have to have full possession, as there is no way I can cope with it, what is taken away... I can't have "Christian grace" Lord just has to take me over. And He did yesterday. Was even happy and at peace. Last night suddenly on my right side, as I was lying beside the electric fire with no heat coming from it, a warm sensation was there, heat coming from something. I just thanked the Lord again and again for sending His angel to warm me and be with me and encourage me. The heat of His love warmed me inside in wonderful ways at that time, suddenly, surprisingly at last.]

(Jesus speaking: ) Darling, I wanted to be near you, so I turned on the light, the light of My very real supernatural presence. How I do long to hold you, to be near you and to comfort you. When the going is tougher, then more manifestations in your life are going to be there for you, for you have and are crossing the veil, in and out you go, touching, sipping of tree of life.

But in order to have your times of intense pleasure in God's realm, it's going to take a surrendering of your will to your Heavenly Father, and that is in no way easy. Branch out, launch out, and do more. For time indeed is short. Be brave My sweet one and I will come through for you.

(Jesus speaking: ) Go in My strength. I love you My dear ones. The fight is intense, but its not forever. Open your heart to receive more from My hand, for the harder you must fight, the greater is the compensations; for I do pay well. Be near to Me. I love you.

Freedom isn't what it seems to be like, while looking at it from outside. It looks like one thing when it is being examined, but quite another when living it in actuality. So darling, do you want freedom or do you want Me? Sometimes they are two different packages.
