

Praises in Prophecy to Jesus_DEC-2020

My Life and Song

I will serve the Lord

For He is my life and song

I will love the Lord

My whole life long

I will give praise to His name

Forever

I will love His Name

It is my treasure

Entirely Abandoned to Him

(Praise: ) Darling, I have so much I want to do with You. I know we have eternity to explore all the possibilities of love together, and that is exciting. Release me from the spirit of the world that tries to bog me down with the petty troubles, irritating me so that I fail to see the glorious and marvellous displays of Your love that are present every second of every day of my life already, right here and right now. Please open my eyes today to see the many loving things You do for me.

Delightful Mediations

(Praise: ) I praise You wonderful Redeemer, for lifting me up and setting me with kings and princes. I am honoured to be a part of Your faithful and hardworking team of warriors, who are empowered with the Keys of Heaven. I kneel again in surrender yet another day, I will live for Your love and fight Your battles, and give no place to satan who tries to get the upper hands. We will defeat him and win the victory every time. Your team, Jesus--us, your knights of light, will always win, for we will never give in, but go and go and go until evil is banished and humiliated time and again.

Let the Praises Ring

(Praise: ) Let the praises ring out from my heart to You, my King, like a bell tolling loud and long, whose sound captivates the attention of others and causes them too, to look upward.

I Want You in the Centre of My Heart

(Praise: ) I open my heart to You, dearest Jesus, and let You in. I want You to fill me inside and take the place of anything else that is clogging things up. I have a nice room all ready for You. I've done my part to clean and clear it out the best I could, through reading Your Word, listening to Your voice, and letting You hear My voice of praise. And now I invite You to come and fill me with Yourself, with Your Spirit, with Your love. I want to feel You in my heart, in the centre of my being, where I think and feel and judge and decide, and where the seat of my emotions are. I want it to be You there filling me, moving in me, and transforming me. I need and love You so much.

Faithfully Praising Like a Clock that Keeps Ticking

(Praise: ) Jesus, I don't need to see the good fruit of my praising You, to keep at it. You keep showering me with blessings whether or not I respond in all the ways You were hoping. So let me be just as faithful and true to You, and praise You in all I do, and in all that I go through, no matter what seems to be happening right away, or if some cool thing takes place or not. Like a clock that ticks faithfully, let my tongue keep praising You, Jesus, every moment.

I Want to Feel and Think Like You, Jesus

(Praise: ) Beloved, the more I get to know about You and Your ways, the more there is to love about You. Please let me get to know new sides to Your nature, the way You feel and think and move; what You like, or what you dislike; how You feel about things that I have thought were dear to me or important. Change my heart to feel and move and think like You do. I want to go beyond loving You, or liking the way you are—the parts that I naturally like. I want You to change me to feel and think Your way so that I love even more sides to Your nature. Whatever there is in my heart that doesn't like something about You, please change me and remove that, so that I can be more like You, and love You and the way You are.
