Millennial Missions—A Word from the King of kings

(3-Feb-2021)

(Jesus speaking:)

Wanna know who the next ruler and king is going to be? I'll tell you.

The name starts with a "J" in the English language. In some languages it starts with an "I" or a "Y".

Pleased to meet and greet you. Jesus Christ, Son of God, King of the Universe and beyond is who I am.

What can I do? Anything and everything.

What won't I do? I won't do anything that is truly wrong or that will go against what God's plan is for everyone.

Who will I work with in the coming kingdom? You, if you want to. You'll either work with us side-by-side, or you'll be learning somewhere that it's best to be close to Me, because all the good things happen to those who are.

Why do I want you on My team? To teach you how to live, and so that you, through your experiences, can help others know the right and best way to live. Together we can make a bright and positive future.

Are you ready for the greatest experiences you've ever known? Then tell Me you'd love to be as close to Me as you can—whatever it takes. Whether it takes giving up all kinds of worldly pursuits so you can spend time honouring and getting to know Me, or whatever it takes. I want you, and I do need you too. You are an important part of My plan for all humanity.

Are you ready to give Me yourself?

Just say, "Jesus, I sign up with Your team. Take away from me whatever displeases You. Please live in me, take control of every aspect of my life, and let me live in Your ways, forever. In Your Name I pray."

If you mean it, then things will start to change in your life, things you might not even be expecting. But one thing you can expect from Me is action, movement, life, joy, and all kinds of new things. I love the new. I love making things new. And I'm going to love the new you that you start to become once you let Me come into your soul and take over the house of your life. I'm going to make things new, and with you I'm going to start making things better and new all around you.

Are you ready for newness of life? Just pray, "Lord, You are now in charge. Take over and do with me today all that pleases You."

And I will. I'll fill you with a part of Me that fits nicely inside of you, a part of My spirit that is made to be inside of you. You'll really start changing then, and feeling new and different. And the good thing, the really great thing is that together we are going to change the world.

It starts now.

Pray, "Thy Kingdom come" and call for "The Keys of the Kingdom"—special Heavenly power—to start to work in your life and in the lives of those around you. This power from Heaven will start to lock up and banish all the evil that has been taking things over. Now it's time to reverse things. The wrong will be locked up and unable to disrupt this world. And what will come instead? I will release so much goodness straight from Heaven, and it will replace the evil, the corruption and wickedness. The good things from Heaven will pour down and start to wash aside all that is now controlling the world.

If you ask for My power, the power of the Keys of the Kingdom to start to work, then good will come much faster, and the bad will be expelled.

My Kingdom is taking over. Call out as My troupes are entering and taking over, saying that you are on our team, and that you want My team to come and make things good, right where you are. Then you will be blessed and good things will come your way.

We'll take you up with us and take you away to a place much more beautiful than the nicest place on Earth. You'll live and work with us, when the time is right. But start doing the calling out for God's Kingdom to come, and for the Keys of My Kingdom to work wonderfully to change things.

Those who just sit in the shadows and do nothing will just get cold and sad and won't partake of the wonderful things that those active ones get, who stand up and say, "Yes, Jesus. I'm one of Your team. Take me and ask me do whatever job You need me to do. I'm ready. Whatever You say, I'm ready and eager to do it."

Are you ready? If I say "go" or "come" or "do" or "stop", will you? With My very nature, with the power I have in Me to share with You, you can go and do anything I ask of you.

We are coming, Me and My troupes. Are you ready? Then stand up and say, "Take me, Jesus! I want to be part of You and Your team. I'm sick of satan's slime in this sad and sinking world. I want something better—and I want to be a part of the team that is really doing something to change the world for the better."

I'll take you. I want you so desperately I can hardly find the words to say. So will you come with Me? Ask for My spirit to fill your heart and mind and to change you and teach you all you need to know so that you can work with the team, and be fully rewarded for your faithfulness to put Me, Jesus Christ, above all that this world is trying to offer.

If you knew something was burning and would soon be consumed, would you grab on to it? No. Or if you knew a ship was sinking, would you go on it for a trip? Of course no wise person would! So is this world and the way things are--the bad is going to be consumed and done away with and sink down, down and be gone.

But I'm coming to you on a flying white horse and saying, "Hop on. I'll take you up really high. You've never been where I'm going. Wanna come?"

A smart person would drop the burning piece of rubbish they thought they needed in order to see their way; and would leap off the sinking ship and get up and on My horse, and off we'll go.

The way that you do this is by telling Me first of all that you are more interested in what I can show and tell and teach and give to you than anything in this sinking and miserable world system.

If you want Me, then you can have Me and a whole lot more. For I own more than you realise, and together we can have a wonderful new life. It only gets better from now on.

Let these stories open your mind to some new thoughts, because things are going to be made new, starting with you. And when you have hope that the new-good will come into reality, this makes your heart happy.

And guess what? Happy thoughts of good happenings will make you feel so much better. And when you feel happy, you will want to give a bit of that happiness from My spirit to others. And happiness that shows up with kind deeds, really does start to change things for the better. (End of message)

Millennial Missions Topics and Story Titles

Each of the 12 topics/booklets contain—

- 1.) A beautiful new colour picture/poster; as well as the black and white line art of the picture.
- 2.) Bible verses telling a glimpse into:
 - What God's way is, and what He promises to those that love Him and follow in His way
 - What God's Word warned would happen, because people have chosen to disobey God and allowed evil into their lives
 - What God tells us to do about the problem for now, until the time is right for Him to make everything nice on Earth
 - What might it be like on Earth during the 1,000 year time at the end of this world's History, when the world is renewed and refreshed and Jesus Christ rules as King over all
 - Promises for Princes and Princesses of God
- 3.) Three new imaginary stories, showing glimpses on the topic into:
