

Heavenly Help

The Wallet

True Stories—Easy Readers

10

Heavenly Help

—True stories of special help from God

Written By Chariane Quille

Illustrated by A. Trenholm

Two families were travelling together in a van on a long trip.

They were first going to stay the night at a friend's house before driving to a distant city to sell the van and move to a new country.

The driver had the necessary van papers in her wallet.

When at the friend's house, one family stayed the night in a guest room in the attic.

The other family stayed in a room on the ground floor, three floors down.

The mother staying in the attic room was doing some repacking, before leaving in the morning.

She quickly dumped out onto the bed the contents of one bag that included the important wallet, and put everything into a different bag.

However, she didn't notice that the wallet with the van papers in it had fallen and gotten lost behind the bed.

After they left the house and had been driving for about half an hour, the mother of the other family noticed that her small handbag was missing.

They had to drive back to their friend's house and search for it.

At last it was found stuck deep behind the cushions of the sofa.

It had fallen there when they had first entered the house the day before, and stayed there that whole time.

Again they set out on their trip.

Many hours later, the driver, who was going to sell the van, looked into her bag and discovered, to her dismay, that the wallet with the van papers was not in there.

It was lost in the attic. Oh dear!
Without it they would be unable to sell the van; yet they didn't have time before selling the van to go all the way back to the friend's house to look for it.

The families prayed for the Lord's help. Then a little girl got an idea to look in the purse that was lost, the one they drove back to find. Perhaps it was in there?

Even though it seemed impossible, to their great surprise and joy the wallet with the van papers was in it!

God must have had an angel move the wallet from its unnoticed place in the attic and put it in the purse downstairs. Everything worked out well!

The End