

Read the story. Retell it in your own words afterwards.

The world was a beautiful place to be now, and ready for the first human beings. So out of the dirt God did the most amazing thing.

Out of the dirt He made a man! Then He breathed life into him.

The first man's name was Adam.
God loved Adam!

He then gave Adam a fun job to do—to choose what each animal should be called. Adam named all the animals!

He liked his new animal friends, but he was also lonely, as he was the only person on Earth.

Adam wished for a friend, a person
he could live with
and talk to, and
love—someone made like him.

God makes people in all kinds of colours.

Definitions:

moist (slightly wet; damp)

element (a component part or quality, often one that is basic or essential)

resemble (to be like, or similar to, in appearance or nature)

brilliant (shining brightly; having or showing keen intelligence, great talent or skill, etc.)

* A pair of chickens laid 10 eggs, and each of the eggs hatched and the chicks grew to be hens—and each of those new grown-up hens laid 1 egg a day for 10 weeks. How many eggs did the new hens lay?

(Tip: 1 week = 7 days; times that by 10 for the ten weeks; times that by 10 for each of the ten hens.)

$1 \times 7 =$

$7 \times 10 =$

$\times 10 =$
