The Revelation of Jesus Christ

2019

(All messages accompanying the verses are fresh from Jesus Christ)

1—REV.1:8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

(Jesus speaking:) The Almighty God will say unto you, “Fear not, I will help you.”

If you knew just how big I really am, and just how much power I have, you wouldn’t ever think something is just too hard for Me. You might be afraid to hold My hand, though.

But that is why I said to be as a little child. For you have faith that I am like a Father to you, and so you reach up to take hold of Me, that is to take hold of the promises of My protection, My provision, My supply.

When I say, “Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest,” then you believe that I am also a source of comfort, something you need, and that without Me you can’t carry on. Your strength will fail, and you will putter out and grind to a halt, but with Me around to renew your strength, there is hope you can keep on keeping on, and carry on carrying the load.

There are so many ways I can manifest Myself, different sides to Me, and I choose to display whatever character trait or side to My nature that best suits the person who comes to Me for help. I can be anything that anyone needs. I can be a gentle comfort, or a strong leader, driving out all wrong. I can be a wise teacher, or a playful friend. I can be so many things, perfectly matching with the need of the person who comes to Me, for I am all and in all. I made each person according to My design, and perfectly suited them to match with a part of Me.

So come to Me, no matter what state you are in, and I can improve things for you, and make you better. I have the capacity for improving any and all situations, hearts and minds.

2--REV.1:12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; REV.1:13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man...

(Jesus speaking:) Sometimes I reveal Myself to people in a visual way—like some of the Prophets, or even to children and adults today who really need to know that I am real. It's better and so much more rewarding for both Me and a person, if they choose to believe in Me, even without seeing Me as a person, with their two eyes.

If I choose to make an appearance, you can be sure it's a very, very small image of Me, nothing like what I really am like in My full power and glory. So in some ways it can help people believe, but they might not get the full and big picture of what I really am like—even if the vision is pretty powerful and amazing.

But if you do close your eyes and wish to see something amazing, something that will thrill you and inspire you to follow Me with all your heart and soul, I can show you things, special things, and you can get to know Me more in this visual way—through the images My Spirit can give you.

Please know, that even if you don't see Me, like the apostle John did—both in My Earthly body, and in My glorified form—that I can still be very near and real and close to you. I still can read and understand your every thought, and you are always in My sight.

3--REV.1:13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

(Jesus speaking:) Through this vision described it gives a glimpse of the God that you serve, and who wishes to make Himself known to you. I love light; I am a fiery God; I am royal, adorned with gold; I am clothed with beauty. Candles can represent praying, and when you pray I am there in the midst.

The light on the candle can represent the fire power of the Holy Spirit, like the flames that shone above the apostle's heads when they were anointed with power to witness. The garment covering shows that I keep Myself veiled, and not all of Me can be seen; there is always more to learn about Me. But you have to come close if you want to get to know more about Me.

The paps sound like "papa". My bosom and chest is ready to take you there and hold you and nourish you. I will feed you with the milk of God and you will not hunger nor thirst, just like both a father and a mother feeds and nourishes their young ones.

Come to Papa. You will have all that you need when you are here with Me. Don't go out alone in the dark. It's cold and rainy out there, and the mud will be slippery. But here, near Me I can shine My light on you, comfort you, feed you, and hold you safe and warm and dry, by the light of the fire. You'll be safe here.

4--REV.1:14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; REV.1:15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

(Jesus speaking:) I can appear however is best for a person who I choose to reveal Myself to. Sometimes I am like a burning fire, bright and powerful—like Moses and the children of Israel got a peek at. Or I can be like a judge, with white wooly hair, only My judgment is pure and right, better than any on Earth could give.

Perhaps I might appear as a shield of protection, like angels who guard you, when you have to “walk through the fire” of life’s tests and challenges. Brass can manage the heat, and I can guard your feet as you walk this life and stumble over the times of burning trials and when it feels your heart is on fire with tests. I can help you to go on; to keep on going, walking on with strength.

Perhaps the most loved way I might come is through the clear and refreshing waters of My voice, waters to swim in (Ezekiel 47:5). And all you have to do is jump in and I surround you like a refreshing pool of water, or like a warm bath to bathe in. “Now ye are clean through My Word” (John 15:3). And I lead you “beside the still waters” (Psalm 23:2), and help you to grow “planted by the rivers of water” (Psalm 1:3).

Anything that you need, I’ve got it. Turn to Me, and let Me reveal myself to you however you best need it. You might not see Me as a person, in a person figure, but I’ll let Myself be known to you in the best way, how you can manage it, and what is needed for that time and place and situation.

It’s like if you handed a gift to someone. Did you give them the gift, or was it just your hand that did? Well, you used your hand, but it was a part of you, and the part that was needed to give to the person a bit of love and care.

Or if you called out to warn someone that a car was coming, and told them to wait to cross the road. Maybe they didn't see you, but they heard your voice. Did you warn them, or was it just your voice? You used your voice, but it was you that did the job.

So there are many parts of Me and things I can use to help you, and you can notice different tools and methods I use, but all the good things do come from Me and originate from Me. So it's right to thank Me for it, even if it seems it comes in some other form than in the figure of a "Jesus-like" man.

I might speak in prophecy; I might give you a hug through someone; I might give someone an idea to share something with you; I might create a lovely sunset or sunrise to inspire you; I might help an animal to do something good; I might send an angel in a visual form to assist you; I might use the weather to affect you or your plans. But all good things come from Me. And one day, when we meet face to face you'll get to see all sorts of new sides to My nature and new visions of Me.

I'm always wanting to show you things that will help you get to know Me and My thoughts and ways, so that we can talk and fellowship together, with full understanding—you understanding Me, and you knowing that I understand you.

So just because I don't appear suddenly to you, in a bright form of light, shining, doesn't mean I haven't planned to visit you today. When you call, I want to show up in the best way. Keep a look out for Me and for the things I send to help and to reveal a new side to Me that you may not have realized before.

Give Me the glory and praise for each thing that I do—though disguised—throughout the day, and we'll have a lot of fun, because you'll realize how I'm constantly trying to interact and work with you and to show My love.

5--REV.2:17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

(Jesus speaking:) I have My own pet name for you, dear one, a name like none other. Sometimes on Earth you might have the same name as another, sometimes even the same first and last name as others. But the name that I call you and that you are known by, is unique--for you are. There is only one of you in all the universe. This name is your special name, known only by you and I, for it's something only you can understand and recognise. But I know everyone's names, everyone that has or ever will live. I know each person and, what's more, I know all the names. I can remember them all, and instantly know all that there is to know about a person—their life and all their thoughts, their dreams, their deeds, and all they've ever said.

So if you listen to My voice when I call you, and you “hear what the Spirit saith” and give Me your full attention, I'll feed your heart and mind, nourish you, help you to grow in faith and in understanding. The hidden things, the secrets that I keep for those who listen to Me, I will give to you.

To those who overcome, they get rewarded. First you have to listen to My instructions and do them, then you win victories for Me. Next you get nourished and fed and given special things only for winners—those who follow Me all the way, no matter how hard. Then I reward you with special treasures, and you'll know you are a part of Me, called by My name, forever. You'll realise then, like never before, just how special you always have been to the Lord, your Maker, Saviour, and King.

Listen to My voice today that calls you now. Heed My instructions, My leadings, and let Me guide you and encourage you that I am near. I love you dearly.

6--REV.2:23 I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

(Jesus speaking:) The reins of a horse are used to guide him in the right directions—they are guides. So I have placed guides beside you to lead you; those that whisper words of instruction. You have your own thoughts and experiences that have taught you what happens when you do this or that; these are like reins as well. You also have your conscience of heart and mind, pricking you if you do something wrong, according to what you know is right and wrong. Also, you have people around you also who might give good suggestions or tips or correction. There are circumstances and conditions that direct you, or train you also—consequences, people’s reactions, loss, rewards, difficulties, benefits, and so forth.

This whole world is one big school. Sometimes as you rest in bed and contemplate what has happened, these thoughts and feelings inside are like reins that help pull you this way and that way, steering you in the right direction.

I can see what you are thinking, your motives for why you did, or did not do something. I do things to give you a chance to think and to make decisions. I can then see what things you earn rewards for—either good happy rewards, or the kind that help to teach you a hard lesson, due to wrong or selfish choices.

If I tug at your “reins” or thoughts and try to get you to go this way or that way, but you stubbornly pull against My leading, then you’ll get what you wish you didn’t. So submit to My leading, My hard lessons too, and choose to yield to Me at the slightest touch of Me tugging you. I want to lead you to good places, to green and fruit-filled fields, to crystal clear waters, and to shady places where you can rest from your journey of life.

Imagine it this way, you and I are sitting in a carriage, going somewhere you aren't too sure, but I assure you that it's going to be good in the end, and you'll be very glad you traveled with Me and made it there.

I know the way so I tug at the reins of the horse to get him going in the right way, and give him a tap to move him along. If you let Me lead, then we'll get there in good timing. But if you keep trying to interfere, things won't go so well. If you tell the horse to go when I know it's best to stop, or to stop when I say to go, or you try to grab and pull on the reins to get him tugging in the opposite direction, things won't go well.

Ask Me to lead you, to guide you and let yourself be led by Me. Then, I can reward you at the end of the journey, and you'll be glad you trusted Me.

"Let go and let God lead" and let Me use the tugs on your heart and mind to pull you this way and that way, and keep you on the path of My will, making as much headway as possible, in the shortest amount of time.

7--REV.2:26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations.

(Jesus speaking:) There are so many people wishing to run the nations and to be the god of all. They'd like to stamp out anything and any way that is in opposition to their sneaky and wayward plans.

Sometimes people do come on the scene who appear to want to make things better, and in some ways they might do that. But for the most part, the hearts of all men and women on Earth are corrupted with the sin of pride, rebellion against God being in charge, and they are reeking with selfishness and wishing for vain glory. You are no exception.

Every day there might come some little thought of wishing for things to go your way, even when they aren't better for others or even for yourself. Or maybe you might be tempted to get more for yourself, or more credit than you really deserve, because you like that feeling of "all men speaking well of you." But don't give in to it. Don't give place to those thoughts of rebellion, the opposite of yielding to Me and My ways that are far higher and grander and better than any you can cook up.

Giving place to the pride of man, is like stepping out of a moving train and falling down hard. It's not going to work. I'm the driver of your life, and no matter how strong you are, or capable of running or doing this and that, stepping away from the way I am moving isn't going to work out. It's the laws of the spirit—and the laws of science help you to grasp it. Any who walk in pride will have a fall and a crash.

Besides, I can get you to where you need to go a whole lot faster. So stick with Me. Relax in yieldedness, like sitting on the train. Sure it might look like things are passing you by, things you wish you could do or see or get your hands on, but just sit tight and say, "You know what is best for Me Lord. You know when I'm to walk on the land—taking things over with You—and when I am to just wait and learn while waiting."

So many people try to run off the train of My will, and that's the last thing they do, until they repent and want to go My way again.

So, no matter how strong you see yourself to be when you look into the mirror, or into your mind, please remember, that you have no strength unless I have given it to you. You have no ability that I haven't enabled you with, and I'm the only reason you can keep on going and doing this or that. Remember that okay? Stick with My plan and timetable, and you will reach the end of your journey. I love you!

So, if it's not the right time to take over this or that, or make this or that come to pass, don't worry. If you allow Me to have full say and control on you and on your life, and on your life's projects, then one day I'll give you some really cool jobs, and you'll get to have some ruling power too, as you teach others the same things that you are learning now. Now is the preparation; later will be exaltation and inspiration. Sit tight and trust Me for the when and how, who and where. It'll all work out brilliantly. Quite.

Shine as stars? Better I say. "Who the Son hath made free is free indeed." You'll be free to rule reign in My Kingdom.

8--REV.3:5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

(Jesus speaking:) White, shiny, spotless and clean--or spotted and blotted, stained and tarnished? Which do you wish to be? One makes the wearer appear to be beautiful, noble, and royal. The other makes people focus on the blemishes and spots, rather than the one wearing that garment.

So when you get to Heaven, do you want people to see the glorified you, in your new body, shining in your radiance that I give to those who love Me?

Or to learn from the example of what not to do; the spots in your character, the things you did for yourself, but not for your God—and in Heaven they appear as dirt on your record, things you will be ashamed about.

See, it's like a photo in the negative form, and then it changes to getting developed.

Earth is like the negative, and things that appear black here, if they are what I've asked you to do or to be like, though uncomely, will be shining white in your record Up Here. And the things on Earth that looked better, and that might have made you seem to shine more down there, getting you more glamorous glory, will be spots on your record in the life to come.

I see the picture the actual way it is. That's what the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and evil does, it taints things, warps them, transforms them in to a negative picture. The bad looks bright and attractive, and the white and good look dark or hard and undesired.

When the first man and woman thought that their bodies, just the way they were made, needed to be covered and were something sinful, this showed Me that they were seeing things all backwards, inside out and upside down. Their vision and perception was marred.

But when you get your new body, you'll get not only the picture in it's true perspective, all in the positive, but it will be in colour too—magnificent colour. For now you have to take My Word for it. My Word takes a picture, or a way things are, or a thought you get, and it explains what is light and what is really dark, even if the image in the “negative” looks very different. You'll have to trust that I have the right knowledge on it.

If you pray, I can give you glasses of the spirit, through the Word of prophecy, to help teach you what is what—what is to Me good, and what is to Me false or evil. Then you can tell others. One day when you see it all in Heavenly light, you'll find it really was true. And you'll have less “spots” on your garment, on the record of the life you lived.

It takes a bit of faith to not take things as they may appear, or the way others say they are. But if you truly want your garments to shine white and dazzling, you'll need to “overcome” and not fall for deceitful and warped ways of seeing things on Earth.

Be an overcomer, and I'll put your name in the record book, and speak happily with joy to the Father. It will be a day you will be so glad for. For when the Father hears that you have chosen to believe God's Word rather than satan's and sin's temptations, He'll be so grateful and thankful, and will bestow crowns and honour and glory and the raiment of Heaven on you, and so much more that I can't tell you about yet. You'll need to show up at the event where I give out rewards for the winners.

9--REV.3:7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; REV.3:8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. (Part 1)

(Jesus speaking:) When you are very tired, it's hard to think of taking just one more step to do yet another thing. That is why I open doors for you. I make things as easy as possible so that all you have to do is step through them. You don't have to push and push, trying to get doors to open—and people to change their minds, or offer you their help.

Why do I do that? Even though effort is good for you, when I see you have done all you can, then I give you a gentleman's help and open the door for you. And I love to help make it easy for you when I see that you have "kept My Word", that is to say, obeyed and kept on obeying what I said to do, even if it cost you some persecution. When you aren't ashamed to call Me your Lord and King and be called by My name—that is to say you are in My family, the royal priesthood, the close ones to God—then I say, "walk right through" "come on in", "welcome", "be My guest", "by all means, do enter".

When people have a passport with their name, and it says what land they are from, they can enter free of charge to that country; they belong there. The door isn't shut for them.

So is it with you, when you show your name—that the name of God is on your heart and you are saved by calling on the name of the Lord your God, and you don't deny your association with Me, then I open new doors for you. I open doors of blessing and pour out the goodness of Heaven on to you. I open doors of second chances and opportunities for you to declare your faith. Then at last I will open the doors to Heaven, the doors to the home of your heavenly Father will be open, as you'll walk through those pearly gates.

“Well done,” you'll be told as you enter paradise. “Come, blessed of My Father; come on in through the doors.” I know your works, what you do and don't do, and you will be rewarded with good for each thing you have done in obedience to Me. Be faithful. I'll see you soon, okay? And until then, keep a look out for the doors I'm going to open for you, and don't miss the chance to walk through and do what I lead you to, while there on Earth.

You won't always feel strong. You won't always have great faith. You won't always feel capable of declaring My name very boldly. You will get weary and tired. But just be faithful to call out My name; ask for My help, and I will help you get up and keep on going. Just a bit further, one step at a time. It won't be long now. Keep showing people the way to the doors to Heaven, the way to My heart, getting to know Me.

I want to use you to open the doors of people's hearts, and there are lots of ways you can do this. I'll show you one you can do today. It might seem like a small thing, but little doors can lead to big places. Help people open up their heart's door to Me, so that when they come to the end of their life on Earth I will be able to open the door of heaven to them. I never turn away those who have kept My Word and have called on the name of the Lord for their salvation.

Can you imagine how hard, how very sad it would be if one of your relatives living in a faraway country finally was coming to where you were, but because they didn't have the right visa they had to be turned away at the border and sent back from where they came?

What if it happened to be your job to be the border police, to let or not let someone in? You'd have to turn away someone you loved and wished to be with. What if you had prepared a really nice place for them and all these nice activities you were going to have fun doing together, and the long times of chatting and fellowshiping you looked forward to having—but it all wasn't possible, because they didn't obey and get the correct visa they needed to enter the country. You'd all be very sad.

So those who refuse to get their proper visa to Heaven, will meet with a closed door, sadly. Very sadly, as I have so much prepared and so much that they would really like to be enjoying. But they have to take on My Name, and be doer's of My Word. Doors stay open for the obedient ones.

10--REV.3:7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; REV.3:8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. (Part 2)

(Jesus speaking:) Little keys open big doors. What key will open the doors of supply and provision and protection that you need for your work for Me? Maybe there is a door that you need opened that seems pretty shut right now.

Why not stop to see if you are doing the list of three things this verse tells you:

Are you working for Me? Are you taking time with Me and reading My Word—with the intention of doing what it says; and then of course doing it? Are you telling others about Me in some way? If what you are hoping to happen will help you to continue to do these things, then ask Me to activate the keys of Heaven and open the door so you can keep doing My Work, and keep pleasing Me.

I've got a lot of keys, and can open any door that you need—and that I know needs to be open. I won't open a door that will lead you astray or down a dark and bad pathway. So if a door is shut, even if you seem to be doing all the right things, then be glad that you aren't seeing what is on the other side. It might be something you really don't need. If one door is shut, and just won't open—something you think you'd like to do in life, then just wait for a better timing or a better door to open that will get you more quickly, more safely, to the way you need to go.

Some doors might just be a trap type of door, and when you go in it, you are stuck in a confined place. It's good for some people, but might not be where you need to go. Maybe, in answer to your prayers you will get a new door open, and this leads to the path that gets you straight and quickly to the place you were hoping to go, doing what I told you to do.

Some doors look big and glorious—like some opportunities, but they are shut, and I tell you, “No, it's not for you,” or not the right time or something. Then other doors might look simple and small, humble and worn, and you might even have to stoop your head down a bit to go through them, and this kind I might swing wide open for you. Go through it, even if it's not as attractive as the more glorious ones.

If I am the door keeper and it's being opened especially for you—that is you are given the supplies and what is needed to do that task or responsibility or method of service—then do it cheerfully. Come on through. You'll be glad you took the humble and obedient step.

It's pretty important to Me to have solid followers, those that love Me through the hard times, not just the easy always-get-your-prayers-and-wishes-answered times, but the times when you face resistance and hardship. Are you still keeping that list: Doing what I am telling you to do, working hard, reading and believing My Word?

Then look around and see what door I might want to open for you—even if it’s not the easy, nice-looking one you are hoping for. It might be the right one, one that you missed seeing, because it was covered in a bush or it blended so well with the wall that you didn’t notice it.

I always make a way for you, because I want you to keep going on your walk with Me. There is so much for us to learn; so much I want to do with you and for you. It’s easy to think, “I made it through that door and down that alley way, what more is there? I’m done. I’ll sit here for a good while now, thinking about what a great time I had, and how I have finished the job.”

Well, I have a good morning wake up call for you, like the crowing of the rooster in the morning. It’s not over yet. Does it look like Heaven around you? Is everyone comfortable and really loving Me, fervently? No? Oh, then the journey and your usefulness is not yet over. Keep going.

11--REV.3:12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

(Jesus speaking:) Sometimes for safety children have their name and address and the name of their parents written on a card, pinned on their coat, or in a pocket somewhere. That’s so if they get lost, people can help them find their way back to their parents or back home.

For those who belong to My Kingdom, and live in the City of God, New Jerusalem, I will write on them their new name, their new address, and the name of God. This means they will always belong to us.

Sometimes you see people who work in an office building or for a certain company, will wear a name tag with a number and their picture and some information about them. This shows that they work for a certain company, and it gives them entrance to that building. Without it they wouldn't be allowed to go to certain places and come in freely, nor to get their pay check. They are part of the team. People can see at a glance that they are meant to be there. Those without this tag are treated as visitors or outsiders, and such. But those who are labelled or tagged are given the freedom that only members get. Perhaps they can have free access within the building and around the offices, or they can freely use the cafeteria, and they might know the access codes, and get free parking at the place for workers only.

So those that work for Me and have received Me into their heart, and have committed their lives to Me, these ones get a special Heavenly label on them. It might not be a visible one, like the somewhat unsightly cards on Earth, but it will be written on them in a Heavenly way. These people are allowed the benefits that only God's children get to have as fulltime citizens of the King of kings.

When the Heavenly City comes to Earth at last, to be adored and honored by Earth's inhabitants, the God ordained rulers of the world then will wish to bring their gifts and give honour to the King of kings. They will get to come close to bring their praise and worship, and offerings. But only those that are fulltime citizens will get to access all the special places, and live with God in close communion, as part of His family. Others might come for a visit, wherever God allows them to come, but then they need to leave again, to go back where they live. But God's children, who gave their life to Him, can stay and live and enjoy freedom to dwell in the city of God. They have their "residency" granted; the ability to live as a long term, life-long citizen of the Kingdom of God, never sent away. Their "visa" never runs out, and the gift of themselves, their "presence" can be the "present" they present.

They don't have to bring all these offerings, like people of the world may, but God's children who gave themselves to Me, to their Lord and Maker, King and Saviour, have given the best they can. They can live in God's Heavenly City forever, and serve the Lord with gladness, always. And it will be with gladness, for serving God in those days after the enemy has been subdued will be pure pleasure.

12--REV.3:20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. REV.3:21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

(Jesus speaking:) Doors were created to demonstrate a spiritual principle—that there are two sides. There is the “in-side” and there is the “out-side”. What side are you on? What side will you be able to be on? In or out?

If you look at the things going on in the world today, the things people believe in, do, or promote, it can be confusing and seem like there are many voices calling this way and that way. “Vote for this” or “do that” or “don't ever do this and that”. But just like I made the rules of God very simple and said there were two main ones that covered all: to love God and to love others; so are there just two sides of loyalties.

The masses might be pulled ignorantly this way or that way, by the invisible powers that are fighting, but there are only two teams fighting: God, and His opponent who will lose. To be on the winning side, permanently, you need to walk through the door to the “inside”, to be part of God's Family. Everyone else will be on the outside.

I am the door, by Me will you get inside to God's Kingdom. You have to believe in Me, get washed up from the ways of this world's evils, forsake and give up the things you are doing that are fighting against God's ways, and choose to love God with all your heart and mind and soul—and choose to love others with God's love and in God's way. Then you will be an "insider".

Come on in! I'll let you in on the inside scoop. You'll find out things that only those who live with and for the Lord their God, get to hear about and understand.

But what do you have to do first? Well, you have to let Me into your heart. I've got to be in your heart, and then you can have the freedom to walk through the door to Heaven and come abide with all God's loving children and big family forever.

Do you like to eat? Well, you'll get to eat at the table with the King of all—food fit for a king is served there. You'll get to sit down and fellowship with all those at the King's table—every day. When you are part of the royal family you get special honours, and you are a prince who helps rule others. You are nourished and provided for, not just with necessities, but with pleasures and joy. For in Heaven you won't go hungry, but can feast with the God of Creation, the God of Love, the God who made you and everyone, and gave you all those desires for pleasure and enjoyment. You'll be ministered unto and treated honorably.

At the right hand of God there are pleasures forevermore, and eternal love and life and joy, merriment and satisfaction. Be brave for now when things aren't as they should be. The time will come when all will be made lovely, pure, and good. Endure unto the end, and then I will say, "Come in, blessed of My Father—for I was hungry and you fed Me."

Because you said to others, "Come and sup with me" and fed them food for their heart and spirit, and cared for the needs of their soul. Feeding the hungry can be a good way to get their attention, but remember that the food and water will pass away and they'll be hungry and thirsty all over again; but the living water and the bread from Heaven is what people need most of all.

Did you offer them to sit down at your table, or did you join them at theirs, so that you could feed their hungry spirit? Did you knock on others' doors and say, "May I come in? I have something for you," and share a bit of Heaven with their home?

Just like I knocked on the door of your heart, so do I ask you to knock on the door of others' lives and homes, offering to bring a bit of My peace and faith into their lives. Don't just let them go on as if you don't care or have forgotten them. But keep giving those little knocks, those reminders that you care and want them to accept you and Me, Jesus, their Lord, into their life.

It may seem like they aren't responding, but every knock that wakes them up and gets them to peer outside, outside of their closed heart, is helping them to make decisions as to whether or not they will let Me into their heart and life.

Keep knocking; keep seeking the lost; keep asking if they want to make Me a part of their lives. I never stop knocking, and have the best nourishment ready to share with each person on Earth. I want to be a friend to each one. But they have to let Me in, before I can come in. And those who do let Me be in their life, and who take in the bread of life and the living water, can be let into My Heavenly realm.

13--REV.4:6-8 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

(Jesus speaking:) You like animals, and like how they can help you? Well, I've got My own special beasts. But these aren't like the animals you know. These ones have special powers and abilities to do special jobs—like fly at lightning speed, and see at astronomical distances in a multitude of directions simultaneously, they don't have to eat to stay alive, and have just as much strength as is needed for whatever task they need to do, and any maneuvers that is needed to, whether it be flying or on land, in any dimension they are called to be in. They are multidimensional, multi-tasking, fully capable for whatever is needed.

Remember the lions decorating the throne of King Solomon of old? That was a glimpse in to the idea of the throne of Heaven, where God's beasts are around. These magnificent beasts are so loyal, nothing could lure them away. Dogs who love their masters are a good sign of what My Heavenly Beasts are like. They will stand by Me, and trust Me.

I'm telling you, if I see enemy begin to approach in his mission of causing reproach, he is eyed very well, and the slightest misstep might get him a face to face approach with these Beasts. No one can do as they please around them, if what they please isn't pleasing to God.

Be wise, be sober, and keep your heart right with the King of kings. For the enemy goes about on the Earth, with his own beasts of prey, trying to capture with fear new recruits for his evil schemes. Don't fall prey. Call for My reinforcements, My good Beasts of Heaven, that can capture and take away from you any strange and foul one trying to stop you. Resist in the Name of the Lord, in the Spirit of His Word, and you will be free.

For now there is fighting and vigilance; later there will be joy and victory. Stay in tune and listening to the hosts of Heaven that lead you to green pastures and places of fruitfulness. Be wise and keep your ears to Heaven, to what the Word of God wishes to say.

Do you like pets? I guess they come with all sorts of good points and down sides too. There is work involved in their care. But these pets and guardian Beasts aren't like that. They just do the work, they are the ones that work, and they never tire, for they are powered by God.

Their food is the love God has for them and all that He created. Being around their maker nourishes them and stokes them up with supernatural power and energy, so they can truly run and not be weary, they can fight and not faint.

Will I not take care of you, and give you the strength and training and all that you need? Be loyal to Me, and listening to My instructions carefully. When the victory is won, all the many victories, great joy will be known. Then the lion can lie down with the lamb, and you can rest in peace in the shade of the trees of God, eating the delicious fruit made for you. You will be nourished and fed, and delights will be abundant.

Be wise, and stay close to your God. For He that cares for the sparrows and all creatures, surely cares for you, for whom He made all things, as an ensample and lesson both to teach you as well as to provide for you. So, run with patience the race that is set before you, looking up, to Me, who created you and is longing to have you here in the Paradise of God, feeding at My table, and in the gardens of Heaven. Be wise, and keep your heart pure and undefiled with this world.

“For lo this world with devils filled should threaten to undo us, we will not fear for God has willed His truth to triumph through us” like the song says.

Be wise and fight the lies. Look to the face of your loving Lord and Creator. I live today, I live tomorrow, I live always, for I am. Period. I am, always and forever.

14--REV.4:11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

(Jesus speaking:) Let Me teach you the things of the Spirit. The things of the Spirit are not made by hands nor the will of man. The things of the Spirit of God are light and truth, and nothing can forge them. They have on them the fingerprint of God and His very breath. I breathe life into all that I create, for nothing dead is of any pleasure unto Me—only life is. When something is alive, then I can move, transform, alter, expand, do with it any number of operations. Yet that which is lifeless can't be used and enlightened, can't benefit either mankind or Me.

When My Spirit moves over something inanimate and lifeless, I can spring life out of its depth. The hardest thing to bring life, and thus joy to, is the hard hearts of people who want to stay dead; who want not the Life, that is the Spirit, of God flowing through them and working in them. These stop the flow of the very life and Spirit that would bring them greatest pleasure—for it would give Me pleasure to live and move and work in them and with them. And what I take pleasure in, receives pleasure from Me.

I love joy. I love life. I love love. I love for My love to be living and moving in a soul that is incased temporarily in a human form. This life that you lead now is not all there is to life, it's only part of it, one small sample or idea. It's just to give you an idea. A bit of an elaborate way to say, “I love you and am going to take care of you no matter what; for I am the God of all.”

What other ways do I have of showing you these and other ideas? Well, you’ll have to find out. But for now, your life experience on Earth is pretty all consuming, and seems big enough to you, wide enough, vast enough. Just be sure to keep Me as a living, pulsating, active part of your life on Earth, then you won’t be missing out on the reason for it all—an enhancement of our relationship, if you’d like to call it that; or union if you prefer; or “getting to know Me” experience.

“To know the love of God” is really the reason for this life’s trials and all—that is when you choose to let Me be a part of your life, in all the ways you can. I just love love, and have a lot of it to share, and I need people and beings to share this love with. It’s really an awesome thing when you realize that the bottom line to it all is that it’s all about love. It makes it so simple and plain. Why not just push back all the other ideas that crowd out this important element to life—like I did. I made it plain and simple when I said just to “love God with all your heart, mind, and soul; and love your neighbour as yourself”.

That makes it so easy to know why you are here, and what I have you on Earth for—to love. To learn about love, to learn to give love, and to one day enter the realm of love forever, if you choose My love, and My gift of love, above all.

Why can’t we just be lovers, lovers on Earth, lovers for eternity; enhancing, day by day, the greatest relationship you’ll ever enter into. Just love Me with all your heart, mind, and soul, and then you’ll enjoy life with meaning.

When all that is left is going through the motions, doing this or that, doing one good and acceptable deed after another, you’ll be going in circles trying to please men, for they always change in what they approve of or not.

If you let people be the gauge of what is good and what pleases God, you'll not find the true love of life, the reason for life, nor much joy in life, except fleeting thrills for a time.

Let's love like you've never loved another before, because you didn't know it was possible to have and to feel and to give that much love.

Let's not worry about what is so called, "right" according to the ways of the world, that is. Let's just be passionate about getting to feel and experience each other's love. You show Me love in whatever way you choose and can manage there in your circumstances, and I'll show you love in whatever way I choose is best. And then take it as from Me, not placing the credit on the hands or situation that it seems to come from.

15--REV.5:9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

(Jesus speaking:) Redeemed. Such a wonderful word. I love that I can say that. I have redeemed, paid for, and gotten back what was Mine. For awhile it was gone, but now, due to My sacrifice, I have back My own. I gave Myself and gained the prize. Redeemed! I can proclaim it and rejoice.

Now it's up to you and others what they are going to do about it. Will they claim the prize that I am offering; that I paid for and received for them?

It's available for everyone who chooses Me and My love, and casts to the ground the folly of this world, no matter what it's dressed up in or tries to glow with. It's fake, it's a deceit—this world's treasures, pride, and philosophies. Instead take up the real thing, that is dripping red in blood, My blood. I really did die for you.

I know it's hard to believe it and understand it, and I don't expect you, in your human form to fully grasp the depth of My love and just what it all cost Me to gain you to be with Me forever--if you wish to be. But you can thank Me for it, and cling to Me with all your heart.

There are many things I can now do for you, besides offering you salvation and life eternal. I can let you know secrets that only I am privy too. But you'll have to listen to the still small voice of God, your Redeemer. For I save you from hell and damnation, and I also give you perks that come along with the gift of Salvation. You are Mine, and I can show and tell you all kinds of things, and let you experience far-out things.

Come to My secret place, where you and I can commune. What is it that you don't understand that is in My written Word? Come, let's talk about it. I have new insight to give you, new ideas, new morals to live by. I set the standard, and entering in to the realm of My Word, and letting its light enter into your mind lets you know what My ideal way of living is, and what I expect of you.

For a time I may wink, or let you not have to be held to a certain standard in one area. There is a time for each thing. But when I do open up your eyes and you discover what I am saying to do or not to do, then I expect you to take action, to change, and to do things differently. To be a new creature means to keep passing away all the old things. If you stop changing and making progress, then anything gets old.

Did you ask Me to show you something new, some new wiser way to be or what you are to do, when you read My Word today? There will always be something in it that will change you, or should enable you to be changed, or lead you to higher ground, a more Godly perspective.

Don't think, "I'm good enough. I'm nice enough. I work hard enough. Anyone who has a problem with me or tries to say I need to change, well, they just don't really know me."

That sort of misguided attitude won't enable you to make good and fast progress. You are nowhere near being the kind of person that I'd like you to become. But that takes time, lots of time. And if you keep making steady progress—that is: changing a bit more for the better each time you read the Word of God—then one day you'll look back at the way you are now and say, “Ha! I used to be like that? I've sure learned since then...”

And that is good. It's great to see when you have progressed and move up higher, that is closer to My way of doing things.

One day we can have a good long chat about all that you learned while on Earth. And the more you learn, the better—that is, the more you learn from Me; for only that is true learning.

Don't you want to be able to look back and see how much progress you have made in just a few short years? Then do your home studies, take time reading and absorbing and being changed by My Word a bit every day. My Word might come as a message in your heart when asking Me for My advice and counsel; or it might come through a message fresh from Heaven, like this one, that helps you see some things I want to teach you; or it might be from really absorbing the Word you read in text form both from the Bible and from Godly counselors, whose words I have allowed to be read to you, because it's what I want to use to teach you something special that you might not learn any other way or would take many more years if you had to find it out for yourself.

16--REV.5:10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

REV.20:4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: ...; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

(Jesus speaking:) It's not just a fantasy for little boys to dream up, that one day they could sit on a royal throne and be in charge of a land; or a wild daydream for little girls to think they could be clothed in beauty, ruling as a queen. My children, you, My children of God's Kingdom, really will be allowed to rule in splendour, one day. For this world needs princess and princesses who can tell them what to do.

Yes, I will be the King of all, the "King of kings and Lord of lords" and that means I will be the head chief, in charge of all. But I'll need the "kings" and "lords" to rule with Me as well. Are you being trained to know My ways and My statutes, and commandments? Then you are going to be able to teach them to others.

And you know who I choose first, My first pick of people to be in places of honour when I come to rule this world? Those who have had the conviction to put a block in the way of satan's plans; those who have suffered hard for believing and obeying Me; even those who stood up with conviction against the pressures to conform to the world, to the pressures of people or so called friends.

To be a ruler and to be allowed a place of importance, one that will change many people or affect them for the worse or the better, you have to have the skill and ability to go against what even whole crowds are saying. If you can't do that, then you are part of the water not the rock. If you get swept away, washed and pulled away easily, according to what the masses are saying and doing, you're not a good leader, but a follower only. And you'll have to keep learning that God's Word is supreme and to be obeyed first and foremost and beyond what others say.

When kings of old listened more to the people than to their God, that is when they crumbled and couldn't lead in the right way. It starts with a desire to know My ways and to study My Word; and then to make yourself, at all costs, do it and stay true to what you know is right, even if you face opposition.

Once I see that you can stand the tides of men pulling you away from your Lord and King and commander, and that you don't fall for the snare of man pleasing, then I put your name on the list of possible rulers in the days to come, in the area or place you are being loyal to Me in.

And if you are really sold out, all out, nothing held back for Me, I might even give you a choice of places that you can choose from, something that might really be your heart's desire. Those who are the most committed to Me will do fine in nearly any circumstance, because no matter what the situation or who they are with, they want to do things My way. Then it's like Me being there and helping the people, but a Me with your face—someone they can relate to a bit more than the burning God of light and all power.

The most loyal get the most liberty in My coming Kingdom. Learn from Me, and get liberty to lead with Me. Love Me the most, and get the most freedom to choose where you wish to serve. There are some pretty tempting offers that will be very satisfying for those loyal to Me, Jesus, now. Take a stand now for the truth, for the light, and against the system of your day, and you'll get to do all kinds of thrilling things, fulfilling things, and marvellous things in the days to come.

I have it all planned out, but rewards go for the winners. Who can endure the most ridicule, suffering and temptation, yet not give in to the pressure, but call out to Me in humble surrender and yieldedness to My plan? I'm watching. I'm keeping records. Your station of service in the future, and the choices you get offered by Me have a lot to do with what you do with your choice now—both when it seems not much bad comes from the wrong choices, and when it seems horrible things happen if you do what is right.

Don't only do what rewards you pleasurable now, for if you do that, you'll have a sorry awakening later. "What? Where are my rewards I thought I earned?"

"You chose the fleeting pleasures of life for a season. Now, are you ready to start again? Here is the first job. Work your way up. This time, make the right choices." I might say.

You'll be in for a rude awakening. "But I thought we were to be rulers, and now I'm just going to class?"

"Yep, that's right. You didn't pay attention to the classes and lessons I sent your way; and most of all you flunked most of the tests too. You just did what felt right at the time, and now you have to learn all that you should have and could have been learning then."

But I'll be a patient teacher and give you great teachers to learn with then. I still love you, but you'll just have to be learning rather than leading, when I wish you could be helping Me in greater ways.

Don't fritter your time away with foolish pursuits and frivolities and froth and folly. There's a job to be done, and he who does it well will reap much in the end. I can assure you of that. Be wise, and keep your eyes turned to Me, your Lord and Creator, for only I know what is best that you use your time and energies for. Let Me be the boss of your life and time and work and all you pursue. If you are a good learner and fast follower, then I can trust you to lead others one day.

17--REV.5:12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. REV.7:12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

(Jesus speaking:) Take the book of the law from My hand, and sit down and read it. What do you find written there in? Rules, temptations of mankind, consequences of sin, and so much more.

Now, put on these new eyes glasses. Then take the book of the Lord in your hand and see what is therein. Now you see yourself, as if pictured in all these different scenarios. It's as if you were in those tests and triumphs and battles; it's as if you went through those very situations. You can relate and it speaks to you. It's a like a parable of your own life, many parts. Maybe not each story, but there is something to be learned from each one.

Maybe you think the Bible is just about “them” and “those people” and that when you get into My Kingdom, the only glory goes to the heroes of faith that are outlined in the Holy Scriptures.

But what does Hebrews 11 say? “That they without us” that is without you, faithful believer, “should not be made perfect.” They, together with your life and you who also serve and follow the God of the impossible, the incredible King, are one team. You will all be on the same plane—those who have taken the walk of faith. They need you to do the job they started so long ago—telling others the way to the Kingdom of God, and to join with Him in a close relationship. And you did them and what they learned and penned for your good, as a guide to help you through the tough places in life.

In that day when all My children are home at last in My Kingdom, it will be all right then, and feel just perfect. You'll both—old believers and new—be commending and thanking each other. They made a clearing and set an example for you; without you doing your job of following Me, what they went through doesn't reach its fulfillment. Yet, you couldn't do what you are called on to do, without their life examples, both good and bad, that taught you what to do and not do.

Both have a tough job and rugged life; but need each other.

And so do you and I need one another. I can't do the job I need done on Earth without your help and cooperation. And you need Me to do the work through you.

So when we all meet for the final celebration, you'll know you all played a vital role in the plan of the Kingdom of God coming to Earth. Earth will be won, and at last a safe station for mankind and angels to dwell.

Who knows what will come next, with all that you have learned? I can't steal the surprise, but it's all going to be great. Trust Me. I love you and am depending on you. And those that walked the walk of faith, and ran the race of faith before you, those who you learn about in the Bible and others who followed Me just the same, are counting on you as well.

Keep the faith and finish your course, for crowns and rewards await the winners. Don't give in for a pot of porridge—that is for Earthly, temporal, quick-fix solutions to satisfaction. But hold out, and hold on to what really matters, and matters in the end.

Peace be unto you, now and forever.

18--REV.7:16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

(Jesus speaking:) Since many people do live in houses, and there are things such as fans, shelters, air conditioning, chilled water, refrigeration, ice to purchase, and such, it's hard for you to realize just what a gift this was—for the sun to not make them hot and sunburned.

Things are a lot colder now than they used to be, in many places of the world. Frost ruining crops is a big problem. Winter coming early in some places can make crops difficult to bring in. This can bring hunger and new needs.

Maybe for those who live in places where cold is a problem, they'd like to think of this promise as saying, "They'll never shiver in cold; winter won't come, but the temperature will be perfect."

That is the message of it.

And for those who think the world is just getting hotter and hotter until it is ruined, well, point them to this verse. If they want a perfect place where heat is not a problem, then come to My Kingdom. I've got it all climate controlled to perfection, something for everyone, yet nothing in excess.

In places of drought and insufficient rainfall to make the crops grow and make there be plenty of clean and good water, then I say the same, "Come to My Kingdom; I've got all the right foods in all the right amounts to meet the needs of all the people types."

You won't go hungry then, and your thirst will be satisfied.

People often think of this as only meaning food and water for the body, or discomfort for the body. But just as there are many types of hungers—mental, emotional, physical, intellectual, and so forth, so will there be all the right times of satisfactions in My Kingdom to soothe and bless and inspire each one, in all the things they need.

If there was something you particularly went hungry in, while on Earth serving Me, something you lacked in, you'll get double pleasure then. I'll feed you and feast you to the full and more. You'll get overflowing pleasure and satisfaction of all the things you went hungry in, or were in discomfort in. "They shall be comforted," I said. "They shall be filled," I promised.

So what do you hunger and thirst for now, and it's not the right time for it be granted to you, due to your station of service or those you must work with? I'm saving up the best of this to indulge you in, to excess even, "abundantly above all you could ask or think". (Ephesians 3:19-21) How's that for enjoyment.

Ask and it shall be given you—in this life, if need be and it be best; and certainly in the life to come.

You think this life is the only place that your prayers get answered? No way. I have some of the best answers to your earnest prayers laid up in store for you when you come here, home to Heaven. It might look like I haven't noticed that you were going without something, but instead I'm just preparing something better than this world can offer, and I want you to be patient while you wait. This pleases Me.

Are you hungry for a certain type of food; or a certain type of companionship; or a certain type of activity; or a certain type of work you'd love being able to do? Just do your best, in faithfulness here and now, and I'll take care of the hopes, wishes and dreams, as well as the needs you have here, and the pleasures you'll get then.

19--REV.7:17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

(Jesus speaking:) Tears fall like water sometimes, from the eyes of people enduring much sorrow, heartache, and disappointment. Such is life in this world, for lack of love, lack of brotherhood, and death make the driest eyes turn to a river of sorrow that flows. But it will only be for a time, for those that choose the Heavenly way. Then they will get joy while bathing in the river of life. Life and love and joy they will know, abundantly, for every tear they cried. I will comfort you and take you in My arms, and your tears will turn to radiant smiles. Be at peace, young one, when the tears fall and people or circumstances trouble you. My peace I will give unto you.

20--REV.10:4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

(Jesus speaking:) Do you think you know quite a bit? Well, it's natural to think that because you know all you can know. 100% of what you know, you know! A person can seldom realize what percentage of the overall "full knowledge of all there is to know" that they know or don't. You don't see your lacks. It's easy to think there's not much more to know, and you have everything figured out. You think you know totally what is right and what is wrong, and what you want to do in life.

But it might surprise you if I told you that there are many, many things that others have been privileged to know, real things, that are good knowledge, proper counsel and insight, that you don't know or never even knew existed.

There are oodles of secrets and far out information that await, to be opened up and revealed at the right time; when you are ready and can absorb it best, and most of all will do the right thing with the information once it's given to you.

Knowledge has to go with wisdom, and wisdom needs experience, and that takes time, years, for some things to be taught to you by your heavenly guides, through all sorts of situations they help you to walk through. But if you resist the fact that you need to be guided, and you don't keep looking up to the Lord your God for counsel and instruction and My insight on the things you encounter, it can take so long, if ever, for you to learn some basic building blocks in life. But when you do learn some main things, then you can be granted more knowledge in far out, amazing things, because you'll handle it wisely.

It's not enough to know things, that's not going to make everything go smoothly, you also have to know it at the right time when you can do some good with it.

When I was with My disciples back on Earth there were plenty of things they couldn't manage hearing yet, and weren't to know yet, because they had certain things they were to focus on doing and experiencing and learning.

And here again, as this passage in Revelation says, when I did show new things, some things could be written and passed on, but others had to be kept for later. A prophet might get peeks at things they aren't to share with anyone else yet; or anyone really, that walks closely with Me might get to know some secret information as a perk of spending earnest time drinking in My Spirit to the full.

I will show and tell you, personally, some things that are right and good for you to know, but it might not be right for someone else to know about it yet. That's what secrets are—some people can know them, and others might do the wrong things or have a poor reaction if they knew it. So it's kept a secret.

I have the most secrets of anyone on Earth. I have more knowledge than any. And I love to reveal secrets to people, when the time is right. Many secrets were told and shown when I came to Earth—things that were “kept secret since the foundation of the world.” That's why people wanted to hear from Me, for I had lots of new information to share, knowledge of the upright, of the Holy, of the right things straight from God.

If the guy in charge of everything that will happen to you, wants to talk and tell you things that will greatly affect your future life, don't you want to hear it? Especially if they really love you, and it's the funnest thing for them to get to speak personally to you.

I'll tell you secrets and reveal secrets to you, if you'll come to Me and let me. Then I'll show you what is just for you, and what is right that you share with others—or that you are supposed to share, and when it is the right time.

So just as you and I can share special secrets, so do others have the same. That person you are living with might know something I have shown them, that you have never heard of and perhaps might not even grasp or fully understand if they did try to tell you.

Those who can know the most secrets and the Holy knowledge of God, are those that spend daily time learning and listening. Just a once a week time of getting quiet for a few moments won't provide you with the same spiritual insight and maturity as having a good solid block of time alone with God every day.

It's like exercise—do it more, and you get stronger. Do it rarely and your muscles won't be able to endure much.

So daily time with your spiritual exercises will make you strong enough to be able to manage all kinds of new information.

But it's not enough to just go through the motions of read, say a hollow prayer, and go about your day. You have to really connect, to put all other thoughts aside, to tell Me what secrets are on your heart and mind—things you may never, ever in your life tell others. When you get real honest and you humble yourself, and let Me see your personal side, then I feel you are ready for Me to tell you some special things that I might not have told someone else, at least not for a while. Maybe others in the past had that secret revealed to them, but you never heard of them nor what I secretly shared.

It's good to know there are somethings I'll only share and tell certain people at certain times, when they've really made a daily effort to know My mind and My thoughts, and to get to know each other. It's like rewards for those who are faithful in this relationship. The closest get to hear the softest whispers.

Come close, and I'll tell you things that will be very interesting, and most of all helpful and provide you with what you need to know to have the life you were meant to have, and fulfill the dreams and plans that you and I made for your life.

This life isn't the only place you've been nor will be. There's lots more to discover. So much more. But try to learn all you can here and now, for it will make things so much better in the next place we will meet, as your soul continues its upward journey to "know the love of Christ" and to know the mind of God.

EPH.3:17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

EPH.3:18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

EPH.3:19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

21--REV.11:15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

(Jesus speaking:) When I come into power, I will shake the foundations that this old world has been built on. It's now running in the power of greed, need, and lust. Get and get more; take and be taken from. But I've got a whole new system to institute, not based on the have's ruling and taking from the have-not's. But on love.

Now if you learn to live in love while you are here, that's like being in training for government positions later on. Those who don't think like the devil's world system, and who don't do things in the evil way, but who choose to step outside of the way of the world and do things Heaven's way, they can be given places of honour; they can help Me to rule in love, because they used their life practicing and learning My ways. But if you just go along with the wickedness and want to get the benefits by those who reward the wicked, ungodly, and selfish actions, then you'll have a whole lot of lessons to catch up on—rather than being someone I can depend on to teach.

See, to make things all snug and comfortable for yourself now—your little piece of Heaven now—will cost you later. But if you can give up the temporal enjoyment of petty joys in order to do something hard that needs to be done, then when it's time for comfort in My arms and in My Kingdom, I'll see that you get what is rightfully yours to claim, and time it by a hundred fold. How's that?

Waiting to get rewarded, and working hard instead will bring good dividends—the rewards stack up in the mean time, and get bigger and better, then if you just tried to live a lovely little satisfied life now.

However, there is a difference to really giving things up for My cause, and in thinking that you are (as in just complaining about the small lacks). You think that if you focus on the hard things and complain enough that this will make the rewards get bigger. But that is wrong. “See how I’m suffering and going through all this, I don’t even have that bad thing that others get to enjoy. How hard. Poor me.” But that’s not what I’m talking about.

Praise Me for the good, and try to see the good I do extend to you, then I’ll bless you now and in the life to come. It won’t take away from your due reward in the life to come if you choose to look at the good side of things here and now and keep a praiseful and positive attitude, but will only enhance the joys both then and here and now.

So if things are seeming a bit hard for you, start praising, then I can lighten the load, and reward you for suffering through it, in this time now. Learn to be content and to live in want, enduring whatever it is that you face. When you praise Me it does two things—I see your lacks and your hurting heart, even if you are praising only for the good, and it makes Me want to reward you for it or make things better in some respect. Also it enhances your rewards later and makes you be more Heavenly minded, and able to do the bigger, more ‘glorious’ jobs in the life to come, should you wish to do so.

22-REV.11:17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O LORD God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

(Jesus speaking:) Little boys and girls that complain about a bit of dirt on their knees while climbing, won't be called on to lead an army into battle. Just like those who fuss now about the bit of soil and hard times, won't be fit for the cleansing of the world when we come to chase out the wicked ones and to establish the righteous Kingdom.

If now you humbly submit to God

Then you'll hold a ruling rod.

Cheerful over the path you've trod?

And with the Gospel you've been shod?

Then you can come and take over with Me, rather than being assigned to lesson-ville for tough training, along with the many others who chose to vacation now, seeking only their pleasure and personal pursuits, rather than seeking first the Kingdom of God.

Then once I take over, it's for the long haul, the eternal Kingdom. How wonderful it will be when peace and love at last can rule. It's a testing ground, a middle ground, this world. There is flesh and spirit residing here, and people and the spirits of people are tried and tested as to whose side they are on.

Then when it's been long enough, the ones who are sure to be on the Kingdom of God's side get to live on and enjoy love and life with the God they love; while the rest, who no matter what is done, never want what is good for them or others, they'll be done away with.

23--REV.12:7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, REV.12:8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

(Jesus speaking:) You wonder why you have tests and trials here and now? Because it's a testing place, a trying place, that's what it's for. What will you do? Who will you serve? Will you choose to love, rather than to hurt? Will you choose to give rather than to take? Every day the eyes of the Lord watch and see and also record what each one is doing—like tests in school it's all recorded.

Be wise and choose love's way now, so you can teach and train others later, and be looked up to as a good example. Be wise now and you'll shine later. Don't worry about crowns of honour now, just do your humble deeds of kindness, and the right things will be granted you later on. Be faithful and I will give you a crown of life that won't fade; unlike Earth's so called crowns, but are mostly just imaginary esteem in other's eyes.

When I turn on the light of My Kingdom, then they'll see it was just a dream; it will vanish. What do you want now, imaginary so called crowns in the dark, or real shining crowns of life in the Light of God's Kingdom, that won't fade? I hope you choose the best, and despise the rest, the froth, the evil, the tacky, the imaginary, and the foul.

Look up higher. That's why I said I would come in the clouds, to remind you to look up to Heaven, and keep the Heavenly vision—and not look to the world for your inspiration. Be wise, for soon you shall give an account of your Earth experience. Treasure My Words and keep them close to you, this will help you hold out for the real and not fall for the fake.

Endure hardness for Jesus Christ; be wise and shine for Me in this dark and gloomy world. I need lights, I need helpers, I need those who don't just want fake lights, like a mirror, merely reflecting someone else's light, yet when the power is cut and all is dark the mirror has no light to shine. Rather get the light of God in your soul, so when the power is cut, you can lead people out of the muddy path and up to the mount of Christ, where a cross tops it, and beyond is the vast expanse of a wonderful world to explore.

I am with you, My dears, and won't ever leave you. Stay true to Me and keep seeking advice from Heaven, for that is what can be trusted. Not the internet. Not the words of so called wise men. All have their flaws, but those that seek the Lord shall not want, or go without the good that they need.

Peace I leave with you; My peace I give unto you. Rest in Me, love Me, hear from Me, cherish My words new and old, and so shall peace flood your souls.

24--REV.12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

REV.12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

REV.12:11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

(Jesus speaking:) Woe to the Earth. Woe to the dwellers on Earth, for the wrath of the evil one is fierce. But he has but a short time to do his evil works, and then shall come the beauty and purity of the Kingdom of God.

The only way you can overcome and remain white in heart, and not soiled with the evil and with the folly of this world is to be saved by My Blood that saves and that redeemed; to come under the shelter of God, and to give testimony. For when you speak up and out and hide not the witness that you must proclaim then My Holy Spirit overshadows you, speaking through you, and declaring the Gospel Truth. I look after those witnesses for Me and mark them, take special note of them.

25--REV.14:6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

REV.14:7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

(Jesus speaking:) Kneel before Me now while I light My blaze upon you. Surrender all and you will get all of Me. But the real Me you will get, nothing of pretence. There is no candy sugar coating, just the hot, alive, molten, moving, vibrating, intense, God. Is that who you want? Are you sure? Because I'll get you down to the real you, real fast.

All forms of worship that do not please Me will be instantly melted and consumed. All forms of pretence won't linger for a second in My sight. I'm not sure you know who you are dealing with. But I am determined to have you, and all of you, and only you. All else will go. Have you seen this yet? Have you learned this yet? I will not allow anything to cover and coat you that is not the true gold that I can cover you with.

Preach Me, teach of Me, tell of My power, and do not way-side your commission of reaching these [ones] with the Word of truth. If you are faithful with these few things, you will see this tree blossom and bear fruit unto God. The birds will lodge in the branches of these trees, and men shall rest under their shade.

Not a word may be spoken of the role you might have played in raising them, the tears and the toil, and the struggles, but your fruits will speak for themselves. Fight now to get the Word of God into their hands, and brave on through the thicket, bringing your lambs to pastures where they can graze and grow strong.

Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Only will you be so, when you walk close with God, close to the fire as Moses was with the bush. In the fire with the Son of God as the three Hebrews were. Close with the fire on your head, as the apostles had when filled with power from on high.

Now let your light shine. Let it shine, let it shine. No, you won't be seen, but the light that is in you and that you are using to shine the way for these dear ones, will be seen. Turn out the light of accomplishment, and turn on the power of God and let Him rip through the field like the foxes on fire were sent on their way by Samson, to burn up the works of folly, that which was not destined to bear fruit and nourish the wicked ones, but grew for the purpose of God: to be set on fire.

Praise Me, for I will use you to set these ones a blaze for good, and do not turn to folly. Lay aside your pen and kneel beside Me now, asking for the anointing and spirit to fall. For without this, you can do nothing.

I will hold your right hand. I will help thee.

26--REV.15:2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

REV.15:3 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

(Jesus speaking:) When your heart and Mine meet, there are fireworks. Embrace and explode with Me, and I will light upon you and bring you safely through every heartbreak and heartache. When you walk with God, seldom do your feet touch the ground. You heart is lifted up and you live in a world of praise, where everything beautiful is possible; everything impossible is achievable; where nothing can stop you, for all you have to do is look to your God, who is a consuming fire, and all that is trying to latch on to you is burned away.

If you are not afraid of God's heat, then the wrong can be burned away easily. All you do is step into the fire zone, surrender to your God, and boom, you can resist and defy the devil and all his crew. You step into the heat, and all that can't stand it is gone from you.

But if you linger in the shadows and are afraid of the heat, afraid of what it will cost you, afraid of what you might have to give up or be stripped of, then in that dank and dark corner, the evil can fester and grow like mould.

Surrender to Me, and all that it entails, and then shall you be kept free of the works of the devil. Surrender to the heat, and let it surround you. Not a hair of your head will perish in My presence. I was not talking of the earthly hairs that come and go, regardless of what you do. But the hair of your spirit, the crown of your spirit, doesn't burn, but is kept. But all else that is not gold or made of God, will perish and be gone.

Do you want this kind of freedom, this kind of joy, and this kind of passion with an all out God who strikes terror into the hearts of all who oppose His raw and alive presence? I'll set you a blaze, for awhile, until all that is wrong is burned away. Then I'll clothe you in pure gold melted on you with the heat of My presence. Now the glow is bright and blinding to those in the shadows, for you reflect the light, the fire of the Lord your God.

27--REV.15:4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

REV.19:5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

(Jesus speaking:) Turn aside from the mere images of what a "God" is and face Me, in the face, willing to let the very hairs of your head tingle, as you shake in adoration and solemn worship. For you do not know Me, not for who I am, though at times you touch the hem of My garment. You reach out to satisfy your soul. You know that I have the living waters and can satisfy you. But still you think of Me as something to play with, like a toy that is fun to have around, to help you have a nice time.

But be not satisfied with such small visions of Me, for the more you honour and worship Me, the more of Me you shall see. Why did I choose those prophets to pass on My weighty words? Because they were not afraid to see Me for the all-powerful Creator and Lord that I am. They knew there was much more to be seen and to be discovered than they had learned so far. They were not satisfied with the image of God in the minds of men. They wanted to know a God who could really do anything, and thus the messages came through to them to pass on to the world.

28--REV.19:6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

REV.19:7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

(Jesus speaking:) The bands of this world can sometimes play very loud and raucous noise, whether it's for celebrating, protesting, or just for the sake of drawing a crowd.

However, the bands of angels that will announce that I am the King of all, and that it is now given to Me to reign, will be totally out of this world, amazing, and with sounds more than your ears of earth are ready to hear. The sound of My voice thundering and captivating the foremost attention of each being alive—on Earth, in Heaven, and everywhere, is awesome. You have never heard anything quite like it before.

And the sounds that My angelic choirs, as well as the declaring, announcing angels make, will put so many feelings and emotions and joys, and terror through souls when they speak. For the righteous, My call to the celebration supper will be the biggest thrill; they will feel joy chorusing through them, and fear, and trepidation, and a feeling of totally surrender and giving their all to Me, a feeling of awe and total, complete worship and deep love and excitement.

This is the moment of extreme delight, for all who love God and have given themselves to Him. Be glad you are called to that supper, and that festival ushering the reign of Jesus over all, and the subduing of the wicked forces that have resisted until then.

Great joy will be to those who honour and worship Jesus Christ as King and Lord of all. No one wants to miss out on that, those who know the truth.

Yet, for those who are blind still, and wish to keep following the in the ways of the wicked one at this crucial time where their distant future is much determined by their deeds now, there will be a woeful cry, a shattering of the glass image they thought was a strong foundation. The shatters of life as they knew it, sprinkled all around; the crumbling of their fortresses that they built to try to keep God out, will make them shudder in fear at what is coming next.

Whack! Whack! Whack! Neither give place to the devil! I will show them with My rod of iron that will dash in pieces all the remains of the evil forts and walls, and false images they trusted in. Whack! With every whack of My rod, down will go another thing that mankind has built up their foolish life on. Suddenly what they depended on is crushed and dashed in pieces, and is shaken out from under them.

Now what do they have left? Just Me. It's just an angry God facing them down. They didn't escape Me by delaying their facing Me and turning to Me, they just made Me madder, and sadder, and made the tactics I had to use be tougher and harder, all to get them to stop and say, "Hello. You win. Take me as your prize, and do with me what you will."

But they thought they were more powerful and clever than that. They thought the end of life was the end of all; that they wouldn't have to face a God later on. But oh how wrong they were.

29--REV.19:8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

REV.19:9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

(Jesus speaking:) There is so much deception, and I'm going to do away with all that. The deceiver and all lies will go. Then there will be such a widening of the eyes. "Oh!" everyone will say, who at first were deceived. Then like a pow suddenly awakening their senses, it will dawn on their cloudy, unwitty mind of man that has controlled them and their decisions. They will realize that they had the truth given to them in many ways but they just wouldn't give it a try, to see if it was right, if it was truth. Their foolish heart was darkened.

It's like that now, for you, even. You can think you are so right and have it all squared away, but oh the things you don't see and know or realize. But if you listen and learn of Me, even if you don't get everything right all the time, at least you'll know heaps more than you would have if you just carried on your life, only discovering what this world can teach you.

You've got to put on the blinders, the guards on your eyes, so you can look straight ahead, to My Kingdom, and not think you'll learn better or get to your destination faster if you look around at the shady grounds and luring pathways to the side. "Let thine eyelids look straight before thee." (Proverbs 4:25)

To go forward you need to look straight ahead.

Teach the children of the world what is right and wrong, and that there is a moral standard, and a God who they will have to answer to one day; and a God who cares, because He loves them. Will you pass on this message to them? They'll hear it better from you than if I rumble with clouds, lighting and thunder. Will you tell them? The success of their life and the good they do might depend on what you can do to help point the way, in the right path, and into My arms of love.

30--REV.19:12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

REV.19:13 ... his name is called The Word of God.

REV.19:16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

(Jesus speaking:) Kneel now and let Me introduce Myself, by turning on the light. Then your eyes will behold Me and see the King in His beauty, in His majesty, and in His power.

Open your heart and let My glory pierce through the shades that are covering your eyes, the ways of man that you see Me with. I am not what you think, I am far more, far far more, much more vast than any of you can comprehend. For a time I wink and let you dwell on Me, or the petty concepts of Me that you are comfortable with. But that time will not go on for long. For when I come and all eyes shall see Me, even the very earth will melt at My presence. All will see then, not just Me but who and how I really am.

If only you could cast aside the belief that you know basically all there is to know, instead you would get to see sides of Me that will blow the top off, that will lift the lid of your understanding, that will move you to do mighty works in My name, and for My glory alone.

31--REV.20:11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

REV.20:12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

(Jesus speaking:) Every man will be judged, that is weighed out, according to their works—and to the thoughts of their hearts, and why they did what they did, or chose not to. There are so many factors and things to consider when judging if something was right and good, or not.

No human can accurately judge, because there is more to the equation than a person can know; much of it happens in their heart and mind and spirit, and one has to know their whole history, everything they have been taught, or lacked knowing about. There is also their physical limitations and needs that play a big role in judging the deeds of a person. But those who have been given much light and knowledge of the truth, and “know their Master’s will” are held very accountable for it.

So the more chance you give to tell and teach people what truly is right and wrong, the more chance they will have to make choices that will please God. The less people have to say, “If I only knew; if only someone had told me, I could have changed and did things differently” the better it will be for those who do have the knowledge of what is Holy and good, if they haven’t withheld it.

No one wants Me to say, “You’ve kept the key of knowledge from others, and didn’t enter in to the full knowledge that God was trying to offer you,” like was said to some people when I was on Earth.

“Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free!” I said. So if you hunger and thirst after righteousness you will be filled with “the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.”

(Isaiah 11:9)

Seek to know the truth; seek not to judge your neighbour or brother or friend. Only I can see the past, present and future—and the effect something will have on many others. Your job is to seek My face, get to know My heart, and then teach it to others, the things I show you.

When life as you know it is changed, and the books are opened, then the righteous judge will declare what each one should or should not receive—I can do this; I alone can do this; because only I can determine the effect on everyone, the ripple effect of each decision I make on each person, and what will be the overall results for the whole human race. Maybe something will look unjust, “What? I thought they were very bad/ or very good!” but because of what I choose to give or make it cost them, it will have the best effect on others. And that is what I am after. I want things to progress to the best next level of “the knowledge of God” and to make all to “know the love of God.” (Ephesians 3:19)

32--REV.1:18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

REV.2:11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

REV.20:14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

REV.20:15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

(Jesus speaking:) The patience of the saints, tried manifold times, and yet again, until all the dross is removed, and the gold shines pure and malleable.

For those that trust Me not and who mock My ways and turn aside from Me, the fires burn to purge them as well, but since they have no love for Me, there is little left once the fires burn away.

Oh, how I would that they turned to me. I would have given them the gold of My Word to hold in their bosom, though it be mixed with the folly of mankind. I would then purge away the wrong, until the gold has melted and covered them, beautifying them. I would shield them with the gold of My Word as gold coats and preserves the precious things in a king's palace.

But they would not. The fires were too hot, and they fell away. Only those with pure love can stand the fires of life's testings and come through them covered in gold as a result.

Come sit here, and learn of Me, though it be in the fires of trials. To sit with Me brings love and testing, for you have to both give to Me what I ask for in return, and give up and give away that which pleases Me not. For I am a consuming fire, and I can't pretend to be what I am not. Come close and let the light of My passion—My love, My righteousness, My will, light upon you. It will burn, it will consume all that is not right, all that is consumable, all that is mete for consumption.

33--REV.21:2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

REV.21:3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

(Jesus speaking:) I am in control of all that happens. And the bottom line is, the pith of the situation is, that I'm craving so desperately to have someone to love in the way I feel it, and to have them love Me back with all their heart, mind, soul, spirit, body, life, time, thoughts, deeds. To do all to the glory of God, that is to honour the Spirit of God, to do all in worship and praise to Him, to do all out of deep love and tender care for a God whom they can't see yet, for the most part.

I don't say that you can't see Me at all, for I appear in as many forms as possible to give you glimpses of the eternal God, the one who loves and cherishes you, and wants to be in total union with you forever.

So, can I breathe life—that is My Spirit—into you and through you, and live and work with you? It doesn't stop with being an earthen vessel, you need the "excellency of the power" to animate and bring you to life, real life.

Will you let Me live and move and work in you today? If so, then you are really alive, and that is exciting for Me. Now we can really go somewhere, do things, and change things for the better; and that's fun for Me. But the best part comes when you look to Me, noticing My love for you, then I get really excited, because then I can start having or building on our love relationship, which was the point of it all to begin with.

It's all about—and always has been about—love, from the start, and will be about love to the finishing of this Earth project as you know it now. Then we'll be onto new ways to live in love with one another, as close and intimate partners.

Do you want to know your God, and the veil of silence, the veil of mystery be pulled away more? Then love Me, and I'll show you more of Me than I've ever shown you before. How do you love Me? Tell Me your heart, express your feelings, and then see what I do to take care of what you've placed in My hands and told Me about. When you see that what you care about, matters to Me—because I want you to know that you matter to Me—then you'll feel a tinge of love or being in debt to Me, just a bit; like you want to return the love in some way. And then we get momentum going.

Isn't that the way love works with another human? You do something or say something, and then see what the response is. Then, judging from that you choose to either get more acquainted with them or less. If what they do makes you feel they care, then chances are that you'll want to interact more, and maybe do something caring back to them. Then it's their turn to feel appreciative and like being with you as well.

First you test the waters, and see how things go, then when love in action and word is there, the relationship can develop, and friendship can grow. But if when you test them, they instead show lack of care and a coldness or hard heartedness towards you, or like you don't really matter, it's hard then to get a friendship going. Even if you love them very very much, if they have spurned your efforts to reach out to them, and act like they are sure you don't love them, it's hard; very hard.

So please, can you take up the signs of My love for you today as My way of trying to get and keep our relationship going, and go further in it? Then hit the ball back in to My court again, showing you noticed what I sent over to your side, into your physical world, and return to Me a sign, a word, an action of love. Let's get the love game going and growing, and that will really make My day.

34--REV.21:1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

REV.21:5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

(Jesus speaking:) When your first child was real young you had something special for him called, “The New Box”. And every time you offered him a look in it, there was something new; something he’d never seen. He just loved to see and experiment with new things. He loved to learn. New meant new things could be experienced and learned, and tried out.

For the Children of God, He’s got a “new box” for them, or a new world to explore, with all the best features. New things will keep appearing and forming and regenerating and making life one full of adventure and thrill. You’ll never get tired of hiking around, exploring around, and diving deep here and there to find some of the hidden treasures that God has placed all around.

New things mean more to learn in a small amount of time. There is a time for growth, and a time for relaxing and reviewing what was learned. So right now is a heavy time of growth, all kinds of growth, but unfortunately growth in the wrong direction—backwards, growth-stunting things are so called ‘learned’. There is lots to be learned by God’s hearty and Heaven minded children and adults too, and you have to keep reaching for the right knowledge.

Then comes the time to put into practice what you learned and learn it well. The time of 1,000 years of training people, and being trained also, is learning time as well, and there will be many new and better features. Then when this time is up, a whole new set of lessons and joys will be introduced, so many new and better features for those who have learned good and well in the last grade.

New things means new learning opportunities, and this keeps you progressing and occupied; you always want to learn a bit more about the next thing. And the fact that some people or beings have learned about things you don't yet know about keeps you wanting to reach forward to learn about them too. Things that teach you new things, as well as new joys and fun things to discover will always be part of your life, on throughout eternity—as well as helping others to learn and enjoy what you have learned and have discovered.

Of course there is also time to unlearn what shouldn't have been learned in the first place, and helping to undo some of the damage that was done by the ungodly ways of some. For some people this may keep them busy most of the time for a good while, as there is lots that they need to undo and work to fix up—the broken lives, homes, and hearts that they left in their wake as they plowed through their selfish and power-hungry lives. But even this won't go on forever, for when they have learned their lessons, they too can go on to more pleasant aspects of life.

And when all the hurts are healed, and all hearts are mended, and all sores are recovered, spiritually that is, then we'll be ready for the next level. I will make all things new, and keep bringing new things into the lives of those I have created. There will always be something new to discover, to learn, and to greatly enjoy that it makes it all worth it that you keep going just for the fun you are getting out of it.

Keep on the pathway of love, and you'll enjoy more in the realm above.

35--REV.21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

(Jesus speaking:) Just “how” I’m going to go about wiping away tears from your eyes, and everyone else’s eyes, will be as varied as the people I’m comforting. Different people are comforted in different ways. Some it takes just a little of this or that, and they feel well and joyous again, with all hurts left behind. Faith helps people leave their hurts behind and moves on quickly to new joys.

Others, who have had long and confusing difficulties, who have had little of My Word to restore and bring health to body, mind and spirit, these will take whole lot longer to heal their hurting spirit. Their tears might need to be wiped away in a number of ways, and it might have something to do with you! Yes, you and others can be a “tear wiper” for Me, for you might have just what is needed to be the balm and soother for that particular soul that I have created. – Especially if it was because of you that they were hurt, or because you didn’t get My Words out to the world that they went without healing and restoration for so long.

Those who have held on to My Words but didn’t share with others what they should have, might have a bit of “tear wiping” jobs to do in Heaven. My Word is what helps to heal the hearts of the broken and lost world. Won’t you please make it as available as you can, in whatever format that you can, to reach whoever you can, in the languages that you can?

The Word spreaders will be greatly rewarded, because Word spreading can be done in any situation you are in; it’s something you can and should be looking for ways to do it wherever you are, or whoever you are with. It can be spread through word of mouth, because you have memorized the Bible or can get fresh Words from Heaven for a hurting soul now; or it can be passed on electronically; or in song in concerts or singing in different places; or in story form told to or in books read to children and adults. Posters, CDs, on the radio, in the papers, written in cards of greeting, hand written, read aloud to those who will listen, in speaking engagements, through videos, and on, and on. Man, there are oodles of ways that My Word can get out now-a-days.

Keep your eyes open, and like a magnet, move towards the goal of Word spreading wherever you can to whoever you can, and let them feel the pull on their heart and get stuck on it. Finally at last feeling like there is something that they belong on—on the Word of God, stuck on the Rock of God, ready to start building a good life.

If you can't teach, you can make classes for others. If you can't talk, you can get tracts translated into the languages of those you wish to reach. If you can't sing well, you can write song words for others to put to music and work together to get My Word into a musical key. There is always something you can do.

The story of the old man that planted trees in France, one nut at a time, isn't just about doing what you can, but about planting God's Word into hearts, for that is the only thing that will really help to change things in this world. Plant the seeds of My Word into hearts and minds and lives, and then the tree of God's good Kingdom will grow and grow until it takes over all, and bears great fruit.

What can you do to Word spread today? Even quoting Bible verses at your meal time is helping to inspire those you live with and help to plant it into their hearts, making them stronger and equipping them with a new seed to share with others.

Seeds of the Word is what this world needs.

Keep your mouth ready to speak out and share around God's Word at every chance you get—or make a chance happen. Just do it!

36--REV.21:7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

(Jesus speaking:) “Son of the most High, living God Almighty—who was and is and ever shall be, God eternal” is a pretty high calling, a high name to be called by. And faithful is He who hath called you thus. Have you become a son of God? Then act like it. Be wise, prudent, don’t take what isn’t yours—whether it be credit that belongs to God, or the things of this world that aren’t to be coveted and hoarded, and no grabby greed to take what others should have.

The Bible, My Word shows you the way of the princess and princesses of God, the way they should act. Start now, behaving in the way of Heaven, and so you can shine in the days to come, glowing with the light of God. Being famous and becoming a ‘star’ on Earth isn’t the way, but being humble and showing forth the fruits of the spirit is the way.

You can be a son of God but not getting to “inherit” all that much due to lack of management of Kingdom affairs there on Earth, in a Heavenly minded way. Some will shine as stars, some will have shame and have to learn what they were meant to have learned; until their selfishness is purged out and they live for God all the way by living for love and His Kingdom goals, which will do nothing to feed one’s pride, I assure you.

Those who get to “rule over cities” are those who had love, not self-seeking goals, in their heart; because those are the ones who work hard, and are faithful, not trying to get something for themselves but keep God’s Kingdom’s best interests in mind. These can be trusted to rule cities, for they won’t “seek their own”. Just like God, “I came to seek and to save that which is lost.” And you are told the secret to getting higher “paying” jobs in the Kingdom of Heaven, by “Seeking first the Kingdom of God” then all these things are added unto you. (Matthew 6:33) And “Look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen.” (2 Corinthians 4:18)

If you've got your eyes on Earthly wealth that will pass away, you are clearly not Heavenly minded. But those with their eyes fixed "on things above" (Colossians 3:2) are those who can be trusted to rule with Me when I come to rule the Earth.

37--REV.21:18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass. REV.21:19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. REV.21:21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

(Jesus speaking:) I do like beauty and I made you to like it too, so that way we could sit back and enjoy the same kinds of things. Jewels, diamonds, pearls and gold were treasures for those who sought to find them. Those who seek after the Lord will not suffer lack for any good thing. The riches of Heaven will be yours, if you have "sought after the righteousness of God" and "sought the Lord thy God".

Seek and ye shall find. Are you seeking the riches of Heaven—the pearls of the wisdom of God's mouth? Are you seeking the riches of Heaven's counsel that is better than rubies? Are you wanting the Word of God that is like pure gold, refined and ready for use and will never decay or be tarnished over time, but polished and fit for use by the King's household?

If you seek after the knowledge and wisdom of the King of kings now, rather than the riches that are imitations of what is real in My Kingdom, then you'll live like a king, a prince, a chosen one, in the household of God.

But you have to forsake the wealth of this world and desire the invisible riches of the King, then you get the real thing. It's like asking a beggar what he'd rather, an account at the bank where you have deposited a million dollars, or some play monopoly money to put in his pocket, along with some pictures of jewels. Perhaps someone offers to wash his old dirty clothes, yet the paper fake money and printed catalog pictures still safely in his pocket can't handle the water without breaking apart, much less actually make him rich.

Grabbing for the riches and trying to get the wealth of the system is akin to this. The pocket of your earthly life where you put things special to you, will be washed away, and all will be made new when you enter the new world of the spirit. But you'll find you are as poor as can be if you haven't a cent in the bank of God, because you only wanted what you could see and feel.

Reach for the invisible riches of God, His wisdom. This should be the foundation of your wall that surrounds and protects you. Build on the right foundation, the jewels of God's wisdom.

Then when you see the glorious city of God and walk through the pearly gates, and see the bejeweled walls and foundation, and enter into the golden city that is so dazzling, you'll be glad you trusted in true, abiding, riches that only God's Spirit could give. You are more than a millionaire then. There isn't any accounting then if you compare it to the world's way of counting their dollars and cents. It'll be like one poor boy on the street counting up his dust particles on his dirty feet, thinking he has a lot of something at least; when along comes a train with countless cars down the tracks, loaded with cars of gold and diamonds, car loads of 'title deeds' to properties, and so on.

It would be better he gave up trying to count the dirt he managed to get stuck on him from walking in the mud, had a shower and washed it all down the drain, giving it up. And instead got a ticket to the place this train was heading—to Heaven.

So don't fool around with the filth of filthy lucre in this greedy and selfish world, but keep your eyes on Heaven, on the true riches of love, of praising God, of living for Him, and of keeping His Words in your heart. Let God do the reward giving, because He has more resources to draw from. Don't you want to have your true treasures where you are actually going to live and stay forever, rather than the poor house that you stayed for a night in and that burnt down, while you just got out of there, barely?

Hunger and thirst after righteousness and you will be filled with the knowledge of God. Keep your eyes on Heaven. It's more glorious than you will ever be able to imagine, and it's real. I really made it, and did a mighty good job of it. You won't be disappointed.

38--REV.21:10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

JOH.14:1-3 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

(Jesus speaking:) Why do you suffer petty things to trouble you, when there is so much more to be enjoyed in realms above. Set your emotions, affections, and desires on things above, and the things that hinder you or weigh you down won't drag you down to sea level. Get up to the mount of God, and see things really worth talking about. There is more, I say, more to be enjoyed and realized.

Want to come for a glimpse, a tour into a palace reserved for a special person, here in Heaven? The first thing you notice is red velvety coverings on the seats that are made of gold in the dining hall. The crystal table top, like a huge long crystal, clear and cut to refract light in every way is topped with gold and diamond dishes, trays and tiered trays to hold delightful spreads of all sorts. This is just the beginning, the place where guests are welcomed. The gardens they can enjoy after the meal are truly delightful, sparkling and spectacular. Rainbows with sparkles on the fountains of light that bubble and spray upward, surrounded by a low seating wall made of emerald and gold and more. Fairies flit here and there, light and radiance splashes its rays all around making everything look every part Heavenly.

Off the garden, down a sparkling flat stone pathway you come to a cottage. This is where guests can stay for some time who are visiting the resident of this property. Its light filled, yet cozy. There is a hot tub. It's stocked with snacks. It has the biggest picture window you ever saw, that acts like a screen of sorts showing any parts of the city of Heaven that they want to view and see what is happening.

Leading off from this cottage is another pathway that goes to a glorious meadow at the foot of a mountain topped with snow. The trees around the cottage kind of blocked the view somewhat, but when one goes down the pathway they see this breathtaking sight. They could spend days if they wished, exploring every part of this mountain that they want to, and then return for a soak in the hot tub, rest on the luxurious bed, and watch what others are doing for fun around 'town' or in their private houses in Heaven—if they have been made "public" for viewing by others.

And what of the large palace, the mansion that this is only a glimpse of? Well, maybe you'll get to see it one day, or something like it. To get around and visit each one's dwelling place of all the billions that love Me and gave their life for Me, will take quite some time. And you'll see that there are great differences in living accommodations. People have different needs and people earned different rewards, but each will be glad to be in the City, New Jerusalem, for they love the King best of all, and just being around Him makes them happy.

Are you doing your part to bring the Kingdom of God into the hearts of others, so they can step out of this world and live in God's lovely land forever? What palace you get, and what your friends get to enjoy and share with you will depend on your ‘seeking first the kingdom of God’ now. Make room in your heart for Heaven, and Heaven will make tons of room, gloriously decorated, for you. I love to please you, and can hardly wait.

Won’t you make Me happy by permitting Me doing what I so want to do, to give you the best? Please be an ‘A’ student now, pass your grades or the tests of life and do your studies of My Word—and help the other students who are struggling beside you. Then I can give you what I’ve been waiting and wishing to share with you. It will make Me even happier than it will you, because I love to give and to make you happy, especially when you have really earned it.

Be faithful and true, and love Me with all your heart and mind and soul.

Faithful is He who calls you, who also will do it.

39--REV.21:22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

(Jesus speaking:) Temples made with hands spot the landscape. But only in the hearts of men and women, and children, do I love to dwell. It’s like someone coming to your house, or to visit with you. What if it was your birthday and you were at such and such a park to celebrate your birthday, but some of your friends just liked being at your house, so even if you weren’t there, they still wanted to just sit there on the couch. And since you weren’t there, they dug in and ate the snacks they brought to give to you, and then they went on to open the presents and start to play with them. All the while you were at the park with those who loved you, your family and friends. You didn’t need a structure for them to say they loved you.

They came to be with you, wherever you were. They shared their snacks and gave you gifts. When you said, ‘Let’s go swimming together now for part of our celebration of friendship’ they took off their clothes, left their bags behind, left all the gifts and food and went with you, the person they loved, and splashed in the water. When you said, 'Let's go explore this cave' they walked over the rocks into the darkness with hardly any light, to be with you on this special day. They left the fun of the water and the sunlight, why? Because they were wishing to be with you.

So it is in many places in the world. The nice houses built for friendship with God, but they get to be a crutch or distraction, when the Spirit of God has moved elsewhere—out to where the people are that God's Spirit wants to call home to Heaven. Be where My Spirit is. Move with Me. Don't get set on a building, no matter how much good it seems to be. And love Me with all your heart. If I am the 'guest of honour' in your life, and you are ready to go or stay, wherever I lead you, then you won't be in Heaven looking for the buildings to give you permission to praise and worship God in.

You'll be looking for Me and looking to Me, and together we can explore and spend time all around the City of God. Worship and friendship with Me will take on a whole new way. We'll go from one thrill to the next, as you honour and love Me, and I show you My love, all over the place!

And just as the light of God is all over Heaven, so is My Spirit all over and all around. You'll be able to feel it, see it, take it in to your spirit, and let it fill you and love you up from head to toe. Want to feel loved top to bottom, inside and out? Let the loving light of Heaven do this for you. You've never felt anything like this. You are going to love it.

40--REV.21:24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

REV.21:25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

REV.21:26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

REV.21:27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

(Jesus speaking:) Passports are different when it comes to entering the City of Light, God's City of love. A little booklet made of paper won't do. Even holding a Bible in your hand won't get you through those pearly gates. You need the seal of God in your forehead, the markings that you belong to Him. And I'm the one that says who gets clearance to pass the portal.

If you have your name written in Heaven, and the mark in your spirit, then you are one of those very joyous people who are able to walk on streets of gold. But it's not easy to get that permission. Not as easy as you think. Sure, saying a prayer is free. But it's what you have to give up that is hard for most people, those you know you are still holding out.

You think "What's the big deal? Why is it so hard to accept love and eternal life and peace forever?" Well, it's as easy for a child to want to sit on their father's lap, a father they know and love and are so glad to be with. But what if you didn't trust them, and you wanted to not be parented anyway, and wanted to be the boss and make your own decisions of what to do and when. Giving that up can be super hard. But those that do, find it a great relief, as so many cares and concerns and weights are now cared for by their Heavenly Father.

And it's not only that, but the life you have to endure afterwards; you have to be very patient. You have to endure persecution and all kinds of inconveniences. There is a great amount of frustrations of efforts, loss of work, and unfulfilled dreams and wishes—all good ones, but they are some of the many “causalities” in the fight of faith. Things don't always go as you hoped and this can try your faith and test you to the limit.

“But he that endures to the end, shall be saved.” You have to take up your cross and follow Me. It's not enough to get a free pass into Heaven, and then to walk off and live for the devil and self the rest of your life, making it doubly hard for others to find their way in the arms of their Heavenly Father. If you truly are saved, you'll have a change of heart, because the Holy Spirit comes and does a work in you, perfecting you more and more unto the perfect day.

If you have fallen away from fervency in love for your Saviour, then quick, it's time to renew the joy of your salvation, and make things right again.

“Only the saved shall walk their in.” Those who wish to come to Me, can. Anyone and everyone can. But those that simply went through the motions to attempt to get a free pass into Heaven, just to make themselves feel better but it had nothing to do with the real thing, and then rebelled against Me the rest of their lives, are going to be in for a very rude awakening. When they show up at the gates, having thought they should have entrance, will be turned down a different pathway. If they turned Me away, and wanted nothing to do with Me and My Spirit, they are going to sorely miss out, and very regretfully so.

You can't just robotically chant some words on a page, hardly knowing what it's saying, and be hating God most of your life and hope for a passport in. You won't like it in My Kingdom anyway, because there's a lot of God around. But if you truly love Me and desire Me, and wish to be there because you just can't get enough of Me, and “more” is all you can think and say, “more of You, Jesus, the more the better; I want to be around you so desperately, no matter what it costs” then that’s what you get, and you’ll be joyfully glad—and I can make you so glad, because you have set your affections on Me, and made Me the center of your joy.

41--REV.22:3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

(Jesus speaking:) At last, the true Garden of the Almighty, in all its splendor, decked with jewels and garnished with Heavenly beauty past description. John, the beloved apostle, receiving the book of Revelation, did his best. However, nothing will fit right with the description, totally matching it, words that adequately describe it. You’ll have to see it in person with your Heavenly eyes.

Why did I make this place? I could have made something less glorious, but I wanted something to show you My love. I house and care for and provide for those who are called by My name. I take away the things that hurt, and give you pleasure instead. The punishment is lifted, and joy unspeakable is yours. Your’s for what purpose? Joy that is yours so that you can joyfully likewise fulfill the pure wishes and needs of your king. I give greatly to you, more than you can fathom, and in return you give unto Me your loyalty, your obedience, making Me your greatest joy; making pleasing Me your most earnest passion. Thank you for giving yourself to Me now, so that later I can give fully to you what you have earned through your faith and perseverance.

It’s not always easy to be Christian, and much less easy to be a believing Christian who acts on what I tell you. You stand out in a crowd and often get a few knocks. But when I come in My glory and power, might and take over the ruling of the world, then all those who have been faithful to Me, no matter what the Word said, will shine with glory along with Me.

Be faithful now, and you'll be trusted to help Me rule later on, as the sons and daughters of the King of all.

42--REV.22:4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

(Part 1)

(Jesus speaking:) Now I hide My face from your view, or more like shield your eyes from seeing Me. Sometimes I give people here and there a little look, something they can relate to; something that shows them that I am right near them and they can trust in Me. But these glimpses are little and small compared to the reality of what I appear in My glory. No one can really, truly manage seeing God with all His 'bells and whistles' and all His light in full beam. So glimpses of appearances are tailor made according to the heart's needs of a person.

Come to Me if you want to see Me looking at you with eyes of love, calling your heart to get to know Me. I'll appear to you—that is in your mind, or sometimes in a dream, or when you are awake—if that is what you need to get closer in our relationship. But if you can go on My Word alone, and get to know Me only by faith and not by sight, I'll bless this too and tell you special secrets that will thrill your heart and comfort your mind, and you'll know then how real I really am.

But when the time comes to actually make your appearance before Me, and Me to you, in more splendor than you have seen Me before, what rapture it will be. The connect we'll have when eye meets eye, heart touches heart, hands join, and we are one! You'll know that you were always a part of Me, and it feels like you came home to the heart of God again. Your remembrance will flood back again and you'll be so glad to be reunited again, spirit with spirit, never alone in that way again.

The separation was hard and taught you much, more than you could learn were you to only stay happily playing in the gardens of Heaven. But though there were hardships and heartaches, loneliness and turmoil, it all served to enhance not only our relationship but your joy too. For those who fight and win and surrender to undergo the lessons on Earth, are plentifully rewarded. These can teach others to teach others. They learned things that others won't quite fully relate to, but they too know things that others do relate to and find comfort in and camaraderie in when they share their Earth life experiences for the good of others.

"How did God use you and work in your life?" will be question you can answer one day to those in Heaven that wish to learn from your life. And you may find that some people you meet in Heaven, who you are talking to, have an interest in your life because they always did and had been helping you in some way. They are curious to see how things played out and what you recollect from your time away. They are glad to see how they helped you in some way. It's fulfilling for them. You'll see many friendly faces, and most of all get to be with your Lord and God in face to face meetings. And that will make even the hardest tears seem worth it; because I went through just as much, actually way more, just to get you here and to be with you in a loving forever.

43--REV.22:4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

(Part 2)

(Jesus speaking:) Is My name, My Word, My thoughts, the future of the children of God in your head, on your mind, in your thoughts?

Think of My name as a computer operating system or program that needs to be installed in you so that your choices are Heaven-minded. Are you thinking, ‘What would make Jesus happy right now. What does He want me to do?’ Then I can take over your mind and tell you what to do, and make you want to do it. I can place a shield of protection over you, protecting your thoughts from the lies of the enemy. You can say My name and it is like activating the program and getting the force field of protection running all around your being. It steers you in the right direction, guides you, covers you with light, tells you which way to turn, and mostly to keep looking up.

Am I in the forefront of your mind? Like your forehead is at the leading part of your body? Or am I distant forgotten thought off in a dark cobweb-filled corner that needs My light to clean it out? Make sure I’m what you think about, who you go to most for advice; and the reason you do what you do. Be shielded and protected and guard your thoughts. Through the name of Jesus ever knee shall bow. You can have all power against the evil forces, if you have Me in your heart and in your head, and operate according to My system’s program.

Perhaps you have said, “I want you, Jesus in my heart,” and thus you shall see Me face to face, in loving glory. But are you also, daily, asking, “I want you, Jesus, to be in my head, and lead me today, to direct my thoughts, and to shut out all that shouldn’t penetrate.”

That is the key to success. It’s easy to give your heart to someone who loves you so much, but to give up your will, your desires, your plans, your wishes to do what God wants, is much harder, and is for mature men and women of God. These are true disciples. Others are mere followers, who are glad for some nibbles and treats. They get satisfied by being around Me. But are they satisfying Me? Are they feeding Me what I need? Have they given themselves to Me all the way? These are the ones who really satisfy Me, and these I call 'overcomers'. These I give the special treats of Heaven to, not just the "loaves and the fishes" but the "hidden manna" and the fruit from the tree of life.

Make Me be in your head today through reading and listening to My Word, this tells you what I want you to know and to do. It's like having an mp3 player and GPS in your head. I lead you, I speak to you, I map your life and show you the best routes to take.

"Take the name of Jesus with you, as you journey on your way. It will joy and comfort give you, as you journey all the way."

The imitation of this operating system is already in place, for the devil works in the darkness of worldly minds, leading them directly to traps and dark pits where he can strip them of all glory, and laugh at the victims he captured.

But if your mind has the name of Jesus written on in, and is its operating system—all for Jesus—this will steer you away from the evil plans against you. Even if your senses are telling you something else is better, when you are being led and guided by My operating system, and you choose to be programmed to do My will, you'll not go by your physical senses or your carnal mind, and thus you will escape and be safe.

"The name of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous run into it and is safe."

44—REV.21:23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

REV.22:5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

(Jesus speaking:) Basically what it's saying, in terms people today can really relate to: there will be no electricity problem. It won't cost a cent. The power will never go out and plunge your house or neighborhood into darkness. Things won't go bad because of no power for refrigeration. Cooking won't be an issue. It's all powered by God. He's the biggest generator around, the Generator of Life. He is the power source. Nothing more is needed for all the needs of His people—light or otherwise.

Of course the way things are set up, the dynamics of God's realm, are very different then they are set up to run on Earth. Just think, no more electrical sockets to worry about blowing out or harming a little child; no more fuses to blow out or circuits to trip. No more coal burning and large solar panels. Nothing that hurts or destroys or is unsightly. All beauty, and all powered by God's loving Spirit that pervades and flows through everything.

Thought power helps many things to run in this realm above. You can't see much "power" in the thought process on Earth, but here you can experience the power that it has to move and do and make things happen. What a way to make things lovely for your loved ones, just think it and let Heaven's love power make it happen. That's why loving thoughts on Earth help prepare you for the realm above.

Put aside the thoughts of revenge, of hurt, and bitter feelings. Put aside the criticism and judgmental thoughts. Put aside the reviewing of the wrongs of others. Start getting your mind in gear for Heaven. The more love-powered your thoughts have been, the more of Heaven's power you can generate and use when up here. If it seems some people have more ability in Heaven than others, that is why: they know the power of loving thoughts and practiced it well while on Earth. And I reward them in this way. More love thoughts on Earth, more power and ability in Heaven.

I gave clues about this when on Earth, about the thoughts to think—not selfish, revengeful, filled with materialism, but “set your affection on things above”, get your thoughts powered by Heaven now, and then you'll fit right in up here. (Colossians 3:2)

Wanna do lots and have plenty of special abilities in Heaven, and not have to wait for a long time until you have learned more about the power of love? Then get yourself training now, today. When you think something negative, swap it for a kind thought about something good you noticed. When you feel down about how you are missing out on fun and others seem to be getting “all the biggest and best pieces” of life, change it to what YOU instead wish to do for others. Okay? Then happiness will be yours, faster and in more fulfilling ways, when you get up here.

Did someone do something that hurt you? Don't let it bother you too much, try to get on a different thought train and go somewhere else in your mind, never lingering at “hurt station”. It's no fun, and won't bring you fun later. Maybe your loving way of being is what will change someone else, and help to alter the things they do and say to match your way of being.

Be the love you wish to see and feel from others. Be the one to take the first step. Demonstrate in a loving humble way, the way you prefer to be treated. This is letting in Heaven's love light, and letting it power you in your life on Earth. When you turn off the power of God and just let the negative darkness creep in, you will find your very strength begin to shrivel and wane. You aren't doing anyone a favour by thinking negatively, and doing yourself a great disservice for sure. So live in the light, God's light of Heaven, by thinking thoughts of love and kindness and what you can do to be a help to a struggling soul. Add your bit to the things that are helping to buoy someone up. You will be blessed.

One day you'll get to see some of the dramatic effects that just a simple kind thought that replaced a thought of negativity, did, and the large difference it made overall on you and on others. Be a bulb of light, Heaven's light. When you feel your grace for managing life begin to fade, look up to the light, and see how you can make things even brighter for others. Okay? I love you.

45--REV.3:11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

REV.22:7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

REV.22:12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

(Jesus speaking:) When I came to Earth the first time it took years of growing and learning and being there until I reached the time, the short time, of my ministry. A whole lot happened in those few years. But it was a build up of first being born in a humble place, learning, and then doing what I could to help support My family there on Earth. However this time I'll "need no introduction" as they say.

I will come on the scene, right away, and get to work doing what I have long planned for. Things are going to move rather quickly. No time for slow and gradual getting to know people. I'll be there, ready or not, and fully involved right from the start. People will know who I am and what I will and will not tolerate. It's action time.

To be ready I said these tips: Hold on to what you have been given from Heaven—the Word of God, the Work of God, the ministry you have been commissioned to do. Do what I said to do, the "sayings" in this book, and in the whole Bible actually. But a short summery of the main “morals to live by” are included in this last book, to sum it up; to make it easy to know what I am expecting you to be doing if you wish to get a ‘well done’ from Me.

Those who are rewarded are those who have been and keep on being faithful—faithful to do, faithful to tell others, faithful unto death; giving their whole life, faithful to teach others to teach others, faithful to witness, faithful to their faith. These are the ones who will receive great reward. Be faithful, loyal, willing and obedient, then “ye shall eat the good of the land” –My land, My Heavenly Kingdom, the real world.

Reality takes on a whole new meaning when I come to rule and reign and set things up. The works and deeds of others all of a sudden matter. Right now the hearts are ‘set to do evil’ cause not much happens for good to those who do things God’s way, and bad actions seldom are righteously judged in a way that makes people want to change. But all things will be changed and made new.

Rewards given out for good behaviour is one of the best ways to curb behaviour to the way it’s meant to be. And the rewards I give out make anyone wish that they had done and will yet do the things that do please Me. I love you; I have loved you; I will yet love you.

46--REV.2:7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

REV.22:2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

REV.22:13-14 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

(Part 1)

(Jesus speaking:) Just like when Adam and Eve wished to eat of the fruit of the tree of life, but no longer had the chance until salvation came to mankind, so is the curse reversed, including the access granted to those who come to Me and have received My Words.

It was the lust for the fruit of the knowledge of evil that brought on calamity; but the “love of the truth” that brings you to the tree of life and all the pleasures that it gives. It’s more than just a tree, you know; more than just fruit. Oh, no, it’s far more than that. It stands for so much more, and gives you so much more. Although most of it will need to be discovered and experienced when you get here.

But just a bite of one of the fruits—of which there are many—will tell you that there is something unusually special about it.

It’s only for those that love My Word, that love Me, and that give Me their life in return for the life I gave up for them, temporarily. It’s a deluxe package deal—free access to Heaven (unlike the blocked gates to the Garden of Eden), freedom to eat from the Tree of Life (unlike it being the new “forbidden fruit” for sinful mankind). It’s only for the sons and daughters of the Almighty to partake of.

Have you become a “son of God”? If so, then you can have right to both the city, and all its perks. And different levels of dedication to Me while you are on Earth will grant you new levels of accesses and rewards in the next life.

It’s not about where you are born, or who you work for on Earth. Everyone who served Me is asked to fill in different areas of service. But if you take time to get to know Me, and learn of the realm above; and most of all if you don’t hold anything back from Me. Whatever I ask of you, you say “Yes, My Lord” and cheerfully do it, surrendering all, this I will bless. And then when I ask you to change and do things different, or to forsake something that is really hard for you, this I am well pleased it.

I’m watching to see what “options” you selected while on Earth, so I know what is available for you for your rewards. And all Heaven is cheering you on. They wish to enjoy the delights of Heaven along with you. As they get their reward for a job well done, on planet Earth, they want you to get to enjoy it along with them. So listen to their prompts and get their leads, so you can score the biggest points.

You might get a little check or feeling in your heart or mind to stop doing this, and start doing that, and so on. Make yourself ready to listen, ready to be led, ready to change your plans and ideas. And ready to hear My voices speaking to you, leading you in the way you are to go. It’s worth the effort, boy I’ll tell you that.

I’m the guy that holds more pleasure “at my right hand” than you have ever imagined; so if you want incredible highs and thrills, now is the time to get your name on the list for “rewards handed out” by doing “your Masters will” to the utmost, in whatever way you can. And if you can’t seem to do what it seems I am asking of you, then ask Me to lead you in that or to make a way when the time is right.

47--REV.2:7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

REV.22:2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

REV.22:13-14 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.

(Part 2)

(Jesus speaking:) I'll take you personally to the Tree of Life, just like I did for Adam and Eve when they at last came into paradise, for your first taste of fruit from the Tree of Life. I'll pick you the tastiest one around, hand it to you, look in your eyes and let it send you to higher levels of Heaven, after just one bite. It's a bit like some people say when they receive Me as their Lord and Saviour and have entered into a new life of love and peace with God, that the grass looks greener, and everything seems more beautiful. So it is for those who eat of the fruit of the tree of life, their senses are turned wild and on high; everything is enhanced and stimulated, so it heightens the pleasure.

Think of the difference of eating food when you have a bad cold and have lost your sense of taste and smell. You eat it just the same, but it makes a world of difference to eat when you can taste and smell it, and have a good appetite. So it is for those in Heaven, everything about them can feel and see better, and enjoy things on a higher level when they've tasted of Heaven's fruits.

You are going to love what it does to you.

And the fun thing is that each new fruit that grows has a similar affect, yet in a different aspect of life. It brings something else up to the highest enjoyment level. There are so many things you have to be here to get what I'm talking about; to grasp it. But you and I are going to have a whole lot of fun. Because once your senses are on peak, then the things I introduce you to and try with you are [activities] that I know will peak in pleasure, according to the fruit of the Tree of Life that I offered to you. I know just which activities you'll really enjoy and get maximum pleasure out of, after which fruit you just ate.

Wanna come on a Heavenly picnic? It'll take us a long time to get around to all the fun and enjoyable games, activities, pleasures and fun that come along with the free fruit. Got any ailments? Ask Me to send you a little drop of nourishing juice from Heaven to make you amend while you await for the day of full healing and life forever. Just a little juice on your lips can revive you and inspire you, and give you the taste and desire for more.

I love you and love to thrill you with glimpses of the wonderful life of love and joy that is to be your new home. Come. One step closer each day, until you make it into My arms, fully and forever.

48--REV.21:6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

REV.22:1 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

REV.22:17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

(Jesus speaking:) The water music of Heaven is thrilling, compelling, resounding, amazing. It calls, it calls the thirsty. Sometimes you hear glimpses of this water of Heaven that produces sound and celestial melodies mingled with your music on Earth. I allow this to pass through the spirit and into the physical realm so that it can call the thirsty to the throne of God, even now.

When you hear the call and come to God's throne in prayer, He splashes you with the refreshing water of Heaven and you begin to revive. Whatever was ailing you and troubling you and drying up your joy of spirit will begin to amend with just a few crystals of Heavenly water from God's Throne room.

For the thirsty, who sit still before Me I can give them a drink in a cup that they can take in; living waters that go down into their belly and will be the joy and rejoicing of their heart. They can then praise and dance and sing much more freely. It's My waters that revive and give life. Even before you get to come before My throne, you can be drinking of the waters of life. The thirsty who come to Me I will refresh.

Sometimes, when you take special time in the Spirit, drawing near to God and His throne, you can dip your feet into the crystal, flowing, enlivening waters; maybe even dangle your lower legs in and dip your hands in to bring up some water to splash on and rinse your face. You'll feel like lying back and basking in the light of Heaven, the warm and soothing, bright and comforting light, then. The water makes you feel rather tingly or something, and you just want to lie back and rest, and that's good too, for it says in the Psalm, "lie in green pastures" and be near the water. You need both—to take in the living, enlivening water, and to rest in the love of God, God's loving light that keeps you growing nearer and nearer to Him.

Take a moment to think about it now and to picture yourself there, in the garden of God, freshly refreshed by the waters and lying back in the sun-shiny light. The light surrounds you, touches you, like you are being hugged all around, warmed inside and out. Perhaps you'll sit up again then and get another drink of water to get doubly refreshed. When you feel energized you'll be able to carry on your work in that realm more pleasantly, with lighter step and deeper joy, joy that doesn't get easily knocked out of you, like someone getting the wind knocked out of them. Instead the wind of God will keep breathing through you and refreshing you and those you work around.

Breathe in Heaven. Breathe in light. Breathe in warmth. Breathe. Take time to inhale and to be refreshed.

Any more water, anyone? I have plenty more, and it will never run out, but will flow and flow and keep the garden of God flourishing. The Garden of Eden was a little bit of an idea of the garden of God, a little symbol to represent it on Earth, so people could know it existed. It was a reminder to them that because they had to leave the garden due to sin, that they could return to it one day, if they thirsted for the living water, the fruit of God, the presence of God in their life.

Wade in the water through taking time to hear My voice. I'll whisper sweet things in your ear, and draw you near to Me. Taste the water of Heaven through drinking down and believing the things I show you, or tell others to tell you.

When the water sets you free of your inhibitions and pride, then you can splash and swim in it, and be filled with joy. The full joy you will know when you come to the water of Heaven that flows from the throne of God. But for now, take all you can get, and get all you can take, so that the joy of the Lord can be your strength.
